Village Plan in Chouteau Defeated

Vote 122 to 85 Not To Establish Village Of Chain of Rocks

The second effort in 18 months to establish a village in an area of Chouteau township failed to win voter approval Tuesday.

The proposition to incorporate the village of Chain of Rocks was rejected by a vote of 122-to-85, with five ballots spoiled out of a total of 212 votes cast.

Associate Circuit Judge Howard White of Jersey county who approved referendum petitions at Edwardsville in July, canvassed the vote immediately after Tuesday's balloting and then certified the proposition as having failed.

Votes were cast Tuesday in only one polling place, located at the home of Paul Seebold, 23 Paul drive. The 212 ballots cast represented a heavy proportion of registered voters within the area proposed for incorporation since the area was said to contain 506 residents.

The proposition was for incorporation of an area containing 437 acres—about 68 of a square mile—that included Sunny Dell Acres and Rae Gene Acres subdivisions on either side of West Chain of Rocks road, extending from Old Alton road on the east to a line near the Chain of Rocks canal bridge on the west.

Earlier Proopsal Defeated

While this area was included as part of the proposed Village of Chouteau which was rejected by referendum in February 1968, it did not include the West Mitchell sector where opposition to the Chouteau Village election appeared to be the heaviest in the 1968 election.

Opponents of the proposition presented Tuesday said the new area was made up of parts of the previously proposed Chouteau Village area where the most favorable votes were cast.

Heavy opposition to the incorporation plan developed during the last two weeks, spearheaded in part by residents living in areas just outside the proposed village boundaries. These residents contended that the new village, if established, later could annex their areas without referendum.

Opponents also argued that establishment of a village would take the area from under county zoning administration and the jurisdiction of the sheriff's office, which would require operation of a village police force.

Proponents of the plan maintained much of the cost of village operation coud be paid by the village share of state income, sales and motor fuel taxes.

Police said the motorist, who was driving north on Edwardsville road, failed to stop the vehicle for flashing red lights at the crossing. The engineer, Joe Fox, 2906 Sunset drive, reported the train whistle and bells were sounding at the time.

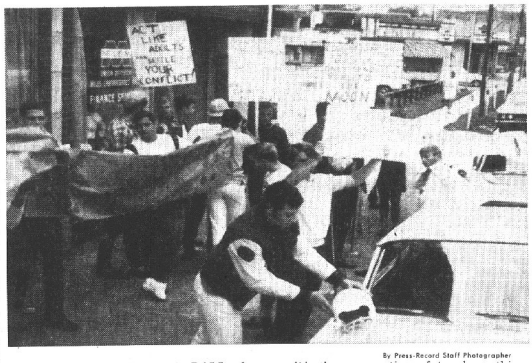

Ortolan sustained abrasions to the forehead, face, right elbow, thigh and knee. He underwent x-rays.

Board Wants Study of Clean Air Program

Granite City's Air Pollution Control Board will seek city council authority to make an in-depth study of all facets of the local clean air enforcement program, including the consequences and alternatives to its present system of part-time operation, it was decided at a regular meeting of the board in city hall Monday night.

Henry Bieniecki, board chairman, said following general discussion of the study proposal that he will write the city council to request permission for the board's technical secretary, Prof. Erwin Hoelscher, to arrange for a professional engineering survey by specialists in the air pollution field.

"Air pollution control has been moving in Granite City on a part-time basis for the past several years," Bieniecki said. "A lot of the effort necessary to administration of the program has been handled by board members. We have not had an adequate staff to respond adequately to complaints and to plan for the future," he added.

Need Program Evaluation

As a result, the board chairman said, he believes it "is wise to obtain a professional evaluation of our air pollution picture as it relates to the federal and Illinois state programs. We could use such a study as a basis for recommendations to the city council as to what should be done in the future about air pollution control."

Bieniecki noted that a 1969-70 appropriation of $14,000 for air pollution enforcement approved recently by city officials "is a step forward" but still does not provide enough money to employ a full-time technical secretary or provide any regular staff.

The board passed over any further consideration of plans for expanding Granite City's air pollution monitoring system or revision of an application for federal funds pending action on the request for an engineering study. Both issues were on the Monday night meeting agenda.

Outside Aid Necessary

"There appears no doubt that we are going to need federal funds or assistance from some outside sources," Bieniecki said. The study may be able to point up the answers, he said.

The board also took under advisement a proposal by Lipsett Steel Products, Inc., for pollutant emission reduction by phasing out all open burning by the end of 1970. Pending a study of the program, the board extended the company's variance until Jan. 1. The program has been approved by the state board.

Edna Newman, operator of Newman's Liquor Store, Seventh street and Madison avenue, was robbed of about $150 by two men who rifled the cash register while she was in the rear of the store, Madison police reported at 9:50 p.m. yesterday.

Officers were told the two men entered the store and asked to cash a check. The proprietor refused and went to the rear of the store. She heard the cash register bell ring and went to the front of the store in time to see the two men running south on Madison avenue.

Burglars broke into the N&W Madison Federal Credit Union, 1833 Third street, Madison, and stole five pieces of office equipment, 40 pairs of trousers and an undetermined number of shirts, Madison police reported Monday.

The purse was left on the stairs. Entry was gained through a window which had been broken since February.

Most Teachers Absent, Pupils Sent Home; Suit Filed, Hearing Today

Board Approves Court Action, Feels Public Wants Term to Start

Despite growing public frustration over inability to send children to school this fall, Granite City school board members said informally Monday night that large numbers of residents have told them the board has made a generous or even overly generous offer to teachers.

Public concern over the school delay, now in its third week, has shown itself in numerous discussions and suggestions of possible ways to get schools into operation.

Mitchell grade school was picketed Tuesday and yesterday by mothers urging that schools be placed in operation, and school athletes have made known to the teacher union their desire for immediate classes so that fall interscholastic sports can be held.

A meeting of parents was called for today at Wilson Park to review the school term delay.

Attempt Called Necessary

Members of the school board devoted several hours to the problem in public and executive meetings Monday night. They concluded that an attempt to operate schools the following day was a necessity, and instructed Supt. Bob J. Davis to close the schools if it became apparent Tuesday morning that not enough teachers would be present.

No actual picketing was reported Tuesday, but at a number of schools groups of teachers were visible across the street or at other nearby points.

Several schools had substantial numbers of faculty members and administrators on hand, but in no case was the staff complete.

State Supt. Ray Page has revised an earlier order requiring all schools to close if there was an inadequate number of certificated personnel on hand.

Page since has said individual schools could operate if they were fully staffed, but the prospect of classes proceeding in some neighborhoods and being denied to other areas is not regarded here as acceptable or feasible.

Harold Baker jr., an attorney residing in Belleville, has been serving as the principal advisor to the school board in its relationship with teachers this summer. The names of his law firm and that of Maurice Dailey, regular Granite City school attorney, appear on the injunction suit filed Tuesday afternoon by Baker and Supt. Davis.

Litigation Authorized

Steps including litigation were authorized by the board Monday night, in the event a full complement of teachers was not available Tuesday. Goal is to place the schools in operation with full teaching staffs.

Other actions relating to the fall school term also were taken during Monday night's regular board session, including hiring of two custodians effective with the opening of school—Luther Dowdy, 2816 West 22nd street, and Henry Harris, 2223 Missouri avenue.

Minutes of Aug. 27, Sept. 2 and Sept. 6 meetings were approved, and bid awards were approved, and bid awards were made on canned food, frozen beef patties, door mats and mop service.

Physical Education Building

Administrators were authorized to confer with Architects Henry Gabriel and Sylvester Dulgeroff on terms of a contract under which they are to develop specifications to seek bids on construction of a partmetal physical education building.

Dulgeroff, Director of Buildings and Grounds Tully A. Heubner and a representative of the Belt & Given mechanical engineering firm visited such a field house at Mexico, Mo., Aug. 27, the board was told.

The advantages and disadvantages were reviewed, and the cost was described as well below conventional construction costs.

Injunction Suit Calls Teachers' Actions Illegal

An injunction suit filed by the Granite City school district Tuesday seeks court action to reopen local schools.

It consists of an 11-page legal document.

Defendants named in the suit are Teachers' Local 743; Robert Johnson individually and as president; and Jon Mullen, Richard Huff, Mrs. Helen Bjorkman, Stephen Radosevich, John Boyer, Gerald Brown and Harry Lane, negotiators and members of the union's Salary and Policy Committee.

Four Requests to Court

The suit asks that the court:

1. Restrain and enjoin the defendants from further engaging in refusal to perform duties, interfering with school operations, discouraging people from entering or leaving schools, advocating that others cease work, advocating that pupils not attend, disrupting the school program and calendar, preventing resumption of normal school activities, spending money to further such practices and advocating to Local 743 members that they engage in any of the actions mentioned.

2. Direct Local 743, Johnson and other officers, agents and representatives to publicly cancel orders that certificated personnel should refuse to perform their duties; direct them to publicly cancel orders or suggestions that there be a strike or withholding of services; and direct them to advise members of the union to return to work.

3. Permanently enjoin the defendants from doing or threatening to do, singly or with others, any of the things listed in the first point.

4. Grant the school district any other relief, injunctive or otherwise, temporary or permanent, that it may be entitled in equity to receive from time to time.

682 Teaching Positions

The suit relates there are 15,000 pupils assigned to 20 schools, with 725 certificated personnel including 682 employed in capacities other than administrators, principals, consultants and supervisors.

It says that all were to be on duty Aug. 26 but about 500 certificated employees failed to report for duty. With pupils to report Aug. 27, Local President Johnson publicly announced

10,000 of 15,000 GC Students Report; No Discipline Problems

A hearing was to be held at 1 p.m. today at the circuit court in Edwardsville on an effort by the Granite City school district to enjoin Teachers' Local 743 from preventing operation of schools.

Associate Circuit Judge Foss Meyer of Bond county was to preside, with Attorney Harold Baker jr. representing the school system. Robert Francis, attorney for Local 743, obtained a one-day hearing delay yesterday to permit him to study the injunction suit filed Tuesday afternoon.

About 10,000 of the 15,000 students reported for classes Tuesday morning but an estimated 500 of the 682 non-supervisory certificated employees failed to appear and the schools were closed pending the court action.

The start of classes Aug. 27 and then Sept. 3 had been postponed in advance by the school district when teacher orientation institutes Aug. 26 and Sept. 2 failed to attract full teaching staffs.

This week, there was no postponement until pupils were present and it was evident that not enough faculty members were present to permit all classes to be taught.

Buses Take Pupils Home

Dismissal of school occurred after the usual starting times had passed, and youngsters who had been transported were taken home in the buses which had brought them.

No disciplinary problems were reported despite the absence of the 500 teachers, who are not working due to lack of agreement on salaries and other terms of a detailed working agreement between the schools and the American Federation of Teachers local.

Administrators and the teachers on duty supervised the students, who were assigned to auditoriums, cafeterias and similar large meeting areas. At grade schools, many parents also were on hand to assist.

The disagreement that has delayed the start of the 1969-70 term by three weeks centers on the amount of the salary schedule and the pay and role of teachers in curriculum planning and summer instruction.

Two-Year Pact Considered

Both parties have indicated increasing flexibility on the length of an agreement, possibly resulting in a two-year pact

Parents Meet, Ask Why Schools Must Be Closed

A hurriedly arranged "mothers' protest" of the Granite City school shutdown attracted a crowd of about 300 parents and children this morning to Wilson Park where a team of five teacher union representatives responded to questions concerning their salary dispute with the school board that has closed down schools throughout the district.

Members of the school board did not appear, although organizers of the meeting said they had invited the board "as a whole" by telegram and that unsuccessful efforts had been made to reach school administrators by telephone. School officials said the initial contact with them was today, a short time before the meeting.

Those attending the session included a group of about 20 youths, apparently of high school age, carrying banners which said "Stop This Delay—We Want School Right Away," "I Sure Would Like to Play Football," "Open the Doors of Granite High," and "Happiness is a Settlement."

Represent Union

Representing the union were Richard Huff, president-elect of Teachers Federation 743; John Boyer, vice-president elect; and Gerald Brown, Robert Nelson and Hary Lane, members of the union's Salary Policy Committee.

They responded to questions put to them in behalf of the informal parents' group by Mrs. Lee Paul of Mitchell, who started the program by asking the teachers to explain the major differences now separating the union and the board from a final agreement.

Huff replied that "money is the number one problem." He said the teachers and school board "are quite far apart on a total salary figure" and said the district could afford the teachers' request without raising local taxes.

Huff said the teachers' request for a voice in determining curriculum matters and an effort to include summer school teachers in the contract were other major points of difference.

In response to a question by Mrs. Paul concerning possible loss of school aid after Oct. 3 if an agreement is not reached by then, Boyer replied that "the school board has not taken Saturdays in consideration in fixing the date...By including Saturdays the effective date of state aid penalty is Oct. 25." State law does not permit a teacher to be ordered to work Saturdays.

"If the court rules in the injunction hearing in favor of the school board, will the teachers abide by the ruling and return to school?" Mrs. Paul asked.

Brown replied that "we are taking the advice of an attorney and we must take each step as it comes. We really can't answer that now."

Clergy Willing To Mediate GC School Dispute

The Quad-Cities Ministerial Association voted at its September meeting Tuesday morning at St. John's United Church of Christ to attempt, if called upon, to help mediate the dispute that has delayed the opening of Granite City schools.

The ministers said they "stand ready to assist in the mediation or arbitration at any time in any manner that would be acceptable to both parties."

Mutual agreement to mediation or arbitration is regarded as highly unlikely, the Press-Record has learned.

Local 743, American Federation of Teachers, seeks pay levels and other terms not agreeable to the school system, which on Tuesday filed suit for an injunction.

Copies of the resolution approved by the ministers were sent to the school board and teacher union, Rev. Paul Surbey, association president said.

Discuss United Fun Fair

At the same meeting, the association discussed cooperating in the United Fun Fair Sept. 27-28 at the Wilson Park ice rink-recreation center. Leo Konzen, general chairman of the United Fund campaign, met with the group.

The school resolution was as follows:

"The ministers of the Quad-City Ministerial Association, in their regular September meeting, concerned with the immediate and long-range effects of the unsuccessful negotiations between the Granite City school board and the Teachers' Union 743:

"The breakdown of the educational process for some 15,000 of our children and students; the apparent breakdown of communications and rapport between the board members and the representatives of the teachers' union;

"The gradual division of our community itself into two groups with hostile feelings, half-truths and misinformation - - - (We) call upon the board and the union to initiate such actions, procedures or changes which would foster a climate of understanding, mutual respect, and a base of operation for successful negotiations.

"And towards this end, the ministers stand ready to assist in the mediation or arbitration at any time in any manner that would be acceptable to both parties."

ASK YOURSELF AND THE MEMBERS OF THE SCHOOL BOARD THESE QUESTIONS:

1) Will the school district receive approximately $1,900,000 in new money from State Funds for this school year?

2) Will the educational tax rate be the same if the teachers receive their salary demands?

3) Will there be approximately $1,000,000 remaining in the teachers' salary account next spring if the teachers accept the board's latest proposal?

4) Are the teachers asking for the same portion of the Educational Fund that they have received in previous years?

5) Would acceptance of the teachers last salary proposal leave the school district operating in the black at the end of the contract year?

6) Did the School Board place stringent conditions upon the PTA Forum held at Frohardt school on Friday, September 5th, prior to accepting the invitation?

   A) Did the Board refuse direct confrontation with the teacher representation?

   B) Did they refuse to allow WGNU to broadcast the forum?

   C) Did they insist that the forum be closed to the general public?

7) Did the Board members at the forum rely mainly on an East St. Louis attorney to present their position instead of speaking as your elected officals?

The teachers believe that all the above questions must be answered "Yes." The teachers have nothing to hide and are willing to explain their position to interested citizen groups. We challenge the school board to "Open Forum" meetings . . . ANYTIME . . . ANYWHERE. Please call 931-4779 if you would like a teachers committee to speak with your group.

County Legal Advisor Scorned At Board Meeting

A verbal attack against Marshall "Zeke" Smith, assistant state's attorney for civil matters, and an attempt to have him removed as advisor to the Madison county board of supervisors, were made by a member of the board at a meeting Tuesday at Edwardsville.

George Roberts, Alton township supervisor, was critical of Smith over his role in having the board of trustees of the Madison County Tuberculosis Association replaced during the summer.

Roberts objected to two compensation claims made by two new trustees listed among the bills for August, insisting that they were excessive.

One was a claim for $400 from Lawrence Lockhart of Granite City, sanitorium board chairman, and $205 for David Norrensberns of Collinsville. Dr. Robert Blankenship of Granite City was not listed for a claim. The three were appointed to the board this summer. The claims had already been paid as they are not subject to a veto by the supervisors.

Charges Deal

He charged Smith with making a deal—"You go along with my legal scheme, and I'll see that you get paid."

Roberts, a member of the board's sanitorium committee, commented that "It's generally known around Madison county that he (Smith) is boss of the county . . . the boss of the county board and now he has taken over the office of the state's attorney."

The old trustees were removed for demurring in transferring $350,000 in TB funds to be used by the county to convert the sanitorium into a nursing home.

Roberts said that Smith should have obtained a legal opinion from the state attorney general on the transfer.

Orville Oglesby of Wood River township remarked that Smith's opinion is just as good until a decision is rendered in court. Landolt agreed.

Entled to Expenses

Carl Buehler of Granite City stated that the trustees are entitled to expenses, that they have made a "wonderful start" since their appointments, and if a mistake was made, "don't jump on them now."

Smith was not at the meeting. The state's attorney's office said he was in Wisconsin attending the funeral of an Alton attorney.

Roberts, who asked that State's Atty. R. W. Griffith replace Smith as legal advisor to the board, claimed that the trustees are receiving $10.50 per hour. He added that the former trustees received $75 every six months, and noted that their services were commended by the Madison County Medical Association.

In an aside, county Auditor John Kraynak told the Press-Record that the expense claims were the first submitted by the two trustees, and that the old trustees had received more than $75 every six months.

After attempts to enter a proper motion objecting to the claims failed, Roberts said he would continue to investigate the matter.

Other Board Action

In other action the board:

Purchased a station wagon from the Butler agency of Edwardsville on a bid of $3125. A low bid by Brewer Motors of Granite City of $2762 was rejected as it did not meet specifications.

Awarded a contract to the B. L. Sylvis Co. of Bethalto for repairs to smoke stacks at the county jail on a low bid of $2495. William Baker of Venice submitted a bid of $2865.

Authorized calls for bids for radio communications equipment, for a mobile van for Civil Defense, to replace wiring on the third floor of the courthouse to prevent insurance cancellation, for printing of the county school directory and for carpeting of the first floor office of the county clerk.

Authorized purchase of a bookkeeping machine for the county clerk's office from the Burroughs Co. of St. Louis. When a board member insisted that competitive bids be called, Chairman Landolt retorted that "the Burroughs Co. is the only company that makes Burroughs equipment."

Reset the November board meeting from the 19th to the 26th to permit payment of all expenses of the election of delegates to the constitutional convention to be held Nov. 18. The expenses are to be repaid later by the state.

Norman Bud Jackson, 55 Old Township road, was recuperating this week from two slash wounds to the upper left arm inflicted by a nephew Sunday at Horseshoe lake.

He told deputies that he and the nephew, Jack Yates, 28, of 2831 East 25th street, had argued at the Jackson home and agreed to go to the lake "to have it out." But upon arrival, Jackson said he decided against fighting and then was cut with a pocketknife.

Jackson said he drove back home and was taken by a neighbor to St. Elizabeth Hospital where 27 sutures were made to one wound and two more to the other. No charge was filed in the case.

MHS Hosts O'Fallon In Opener Tomorrow

"We'll be ready," Al Vonder Haar, Madison high school football coach says. But his Trojan team is expecting anything but an easy game in its season opener against Coach Bob Scates' O'Fallon Panthers at 7:30 p.m. Friday at MHS.

The Panther powerhouse last year blanked MHS 27-0 during a season in which both teams smashed most of their opponents. O'Fallon, which ended 8-1-1, regularly opened holes for short gains and helped sustain its drives with short passes against MHS.

The defense of 1968 speaks for itself, but this year Brian Gordon, called O'Fallon's defensive squad psychological leader, is out with an injury.

O'Fallon Center Bill Gamble has been converted to quarterback; at nearly every other position there are both depth and experience. The running attack is described as "solid," as is that of the Trojans.

Madison hopes to avoid its five 1968 fumbles against O'Fallon, and its fleet, tall ends will try to deny the enemy many aerial gains.

Ervin, Scott Return

The MHS signal caller, Austin Lewis, also lacks extensive varsity quarterback experience. Aiding him will be all-conference End John Ervin and all-league Bob Scott, able "pulling" guard. MHS is in the Midwestern Conference; O'Fallon is independent.

MHS will open with a backfield of Lewis, 185 pounds; Willie Ackers, 185, and Dwayne Shaw, 175, halfbacks; and Harold James, 205, fullback. Ackers and James, both highly regarded, are seniors; the others are juniors.

The big Trojan line will include five seniors plus two juniors—Guard Harold Campbell, 190, and Center Dennis Smith, 225.

Also at the forward wall will be Ends George Tyus, 160, and Ervin, 180; Tackles Tim Bennett, 185, and Tony Young, 210; and Guard Scott, 205.

Visting Starters

O'Fallon's backfield will feature Quarterback Gamble, 180, Halfbacks Larry and Curt Goodman, each 135 pounds, and Fullback Rick Ott, 182.

The enemy line consists of Ends Kevin Kombrink, 155, and Marty Poepping, 177; Tackles Jim Oberg, 185, and John Schwarz, 205; Guards Burt Smisher, 150, and David Robertson, 175; and Center Bland Simmons, 202.

All starting Panthers are seniors except Kombrink, a junior, and Smisher and Larry Goodman, sophomores.

Next MHS game will be here against Rosary of St. Louis next Thursday, Sept. 18.

Fall Soccer Campaign To Open Here Saturday

The Tri-City YMCA fall soccer season will begin Saturday on the St. Elizabeth school athletic field at Pontoon and Johnson roads and the Mitchell field at the end of Greenway drive.

Two new Quad-City area teams have been added to the seven-division soccer association for boys six through 14 years old for a total of 36 teams.

All but two Collinsville teams have left the local association to form a new 18-team association in Collinsville.

Tri-City Association Director Ruben Mendoza, who has been instrumental in the development of boys' soccer in this area, views the initiative the Collinsville soccer boosters have shown in forming their own association as a compliment to the local sponsors, players, parents and coaches, who showed that soccer can be a successful program in a community.

As an example of soccer's progress here, when boys' soccer was launched nine years ago in Granite City, qualified referees had to be imported from St. Louis. Now, drawing from the supply of young men who have been playing soccer in this area, all the referees are local residents, it was noted.

Vacancies for Players

Boys who wish to join the soccer program may phone Mendoza Sporting Goods at 876-1794. They must pay fees and have registered at least one day preceding their first game.

The soccer divisions are: Peewees, 6-7 years old; first-year Atoms, 8; second-year Atoms, 9; first-year Bantams, 10; second-year Bantams, 11; Midgets, 12; and Juveniles, 13-14.

A local Junior division team, for higher age boys, will begin playing in the Metropolitan St. Louis League later this month.

'Rains Dance' Vs. Pocahontas' Braves In Playoffs Sunday

Inter-City Baseball League playoffs are planned for Sunday at 2:30 p.m. after being postponed last week because of wet grounds.

Mercer (12-8) will host Pocahontas (11-9) at Wilson Park and Collinsville (13-7) will be at home against East Alton (10-9) at Fletcher Field.

Don Rains, with the league's third best run average of 2.29, is Mercer's probable starter. When he last faced Pocahontas, he held the Braves to five hits for a 9-2 win.

He will have the bullpen backing of his brother, Jim Rains, whose 2.58 ERA is fourth best.

Mike Weber is likely to hurl for Pocahontas. In addition to standing fifth with a 3.09 ERA, he will be fighting with Mercer's Harold Tanksley in a repeat of the league batting crown race. Both carry .430-plus averages.

School Delay Prevents GC-at-Althoff Contest

The Granite City vs. Belleville Althoff football game slated for Belleville this Saturday will not be played. Possibly the game can be rescheduled for Nov. 21 or 22.

The latest Illinois High School Association interpretation of rules is that for a player to be eligible for interscholastic competition, he must have attended school five days. The fall term has not yet been successfully started in the Granite City school district due to a work stoppage by teachers.

Every Monday that school does not begin, the following weekend's game will be canceled or postponed, a spokesman told the Press-Record.

Granite City's grid schedule is filled through Nov. 7 and some other schools have schedules extending through Thanksgiving, Nov. 27.

But with the additional problem of other sports, such as basketball, wrestling and soccer, it may be impossible to reschedule postponed football games.

Enough Warrior practice sessions have been held to permit interscholastic play after actual classes are under way.

Flag Football On Saturday

The Granite City park district's flag football season will begin Saturday at Wilson Park. The grid program is in dire need of referees.

In past seasons, 25 referees were needed. So far, only two have been hired. The park district prefers adults but also will hire high school seniors. Those interested may contact Ron Dillard at the park office.

This year, 13 to 15 boys are on each of 20 teams. The teams are divided by age into the Ron Hall League (ages 8-9), Ken Gray League (10-11), and Joe Robb League (12-13).

Most of the games will be played during daylight on Saturdays. Several games will be scheduled at night under the softball diamond lights.

Eight-player teams play on fields 40x80 yards; all wear shoulder pads and helmets. A tackle is simulated when the ball carrier loses one of the flags he wears on each hip.

Nameoki Board Plans Legal Steps To Recover Items

Legal proceedings against former Nameoki township officials and appointees who are believed to have equipment owned by the township will be instituted to recover the items, it was decided at a meeting of the town board Monday night.

Township auditors also heard a proposal by a Pontoon Beach official who recommended the township and village join forces in a comprehensive clean-up program in the Long Lake area.

Township Atty. William Schooley was authorized to file suit to regain possession of the township's property which reportedly includes an animal tranquilizer gun, a camera, filing cabinets and typewriters.

Louis Whitsell, town clerk, said the property had been bought with taxpayers money and belongs in the township office. "We have approached certain individuals about returning the items with no results. Now, we must resort to legal means for their recovery," the official said.

Clean Up Trucks Sought

Dr. Dean Rochester, a member of the Pontoon Beach board of trustees, proposed a joint clean-up effort of Long Lake by the township and village. If the township would provide the equipment, such as trucks, volunteer workers from the village would undertake the clean-up task, the Pontoon official said.

Rochester further suggested that similar combined action by township and village boards would be mutually beneficial in helping to solve the area's urgent sewer and sanitary drainage problems.

The clean-up proposal was referred to Township Highway Commissioner Charles Hanks.

A resolution was passed for Nameoki officials to attend the annual state convention of township officials Oct. 25-28 in Peoria. Each official was authorized a $200 allowance to cover expenses, with exception of Schooley, who was granted $100, with additional funds to be contributed by Granite City township.

Storage Tank Needed

Whitsell said that no response has been received to bids sought by the town board for installation of an underground 2000-gallon gasoline tank. The present tank is leaking water, he pointed out.

Highway Commissioner Hanks reported that Conoco Gas Co., has agreed to provide and install a tank, if the township agrees to purchase gas from the company. No action was taken on the offer pending the firm's submitting cost estimates of gasoline.

Township authorities learned that final application for $225,000 in federal funds to initiate the State Park area sewer and drainage project will be submitted next week to the Chicago regional office of Housing and Urban Development Agency.

Whitsell said that a consultant from Horner & Shifrin, Inc., St. Louis, which conducted an engineering study of the area last year, has requested a meeting with the Nameoki Township Sewerage and Drainage committee before the application is filed.

In response to a request made last month by a resident of Spring avenue for repair of a Sidewalk fronting her home, an opinion by Schooley stated the township is not liable for sidewalk maintenance which is the responsibility of the property owner.

Janitorial Services

The board agreed to hire janitorial services for the township office on a regular basis and authorized the sum of $230 per year for twice-monthly cleanings and supplies and an additional $26 per year for annual cleaning work.

Complaints involving high weeds were reported, including two locations where responsibility is in question — the median strip on Courtenay blvd., and an alley near Miracle, Waterman and Woodlawn avenues.

Weed cutting also was requested on a vacant lot on Parkview blvd., whose owner is believed in California. A notice will be served on the property owner, after which the township will cut weeds and submit a bill should no action be taken by the individual, it was agreed.

The mosquito spraying unit currently is operating in each of the township's seven precincts on a one-day-per-week basis, it was reported.

A bill, presently awaiting legislative approval, which will enable townships to organize their own law enforcement agencies was discussed briefly, after complaints were reviewed relating to inadequate police protection in the township.

Rear of Auto Struck

Sally Smoot, 5178 Nameoki road, was charged with a right-of-way violation after her auto, turning left from St. Clair avenue onto Nameoki road, struck the right rear of a car driven by Ralph K. Martin, 2523 Lincoln avenue, at 7:05 p.m. Tuesday.

18 Chamber Nominees Approved by Directors

A monthly board meeting and social evening were combined Tuesday by directors of the Tri-Cities Chamber of Commerce, who were entertained onboard "The Albatross," a 65-foot cruiser owned by Dr. Felicia D. Koch, a local physician and Chamber director.

A buffet dinner was served aboard the craft, which is berthed at Harbor Point in Missouri on the Mississippi River. Twenty-four attended.

The Chamber directors authorized a $300 contribution to the Coordinated Youth Services to help defray expenses of a recently concluded Neighborhood Youth Corps summer employment program conducted here.

Chamber President Clifton E. Blankenship presented details of a program through which the local Chamber may receive additional accreditation from the U. S. Chamber of Commerce by meeting specific requirements.

The program, approved by the directors, provides for Chamber members to review and evaluate their organization's operating procedures, policies and projects in comparison with detailed criteria established by the national Chamber, Blankenship explained.

Howard Colquitt, Chamber executive, reported ballots would be mailed this week listing candidates for the board. From 18 nominees approved by the current board, nine directors will be selected for three-year terms. Ballots must be returned to the Chamber office by 5 p.m. Monday, Sept. 22.

ILLINOIS HOUSE SPEAKER Ralph T. Smith outlining legislative procedure for providing state educational aid as speaker at seventh annual New Teachers Reception Monday night.

Income Tax Should Ease Local Burden--Rep. Smith

Legislators who drafted this year's new school aid laws and knew a state income tax would be necessary to pay it felt that the income tax should alleviate to some extent the local level of property taxes, State Rep. Ralph T. Smith, (R-Alton) told the seventh annual New Teachers Reception at the Granite City Trust & Savings Bank Monday evening.

Rep. Smith, now Speaker of the Illinois House and a leading contender for the U. S. Senator post vacated by the death of Everett M. Dirksen, outlined methods under which the legislature provides educational funds to assure adequate educational facilities for all children in the state. He implied his belief that teachers should receive higher pay, but did not go into detail.

The speaker made no direct reference to the current controversy between the Granite City school district and Teachers Federation 743 over salary levels.

The reception, an annual event hosted by officers of the bank, was attended by 193 persons, including new teachers, school officials and school board members. A buffet dinner was served in the bank lobby at 6:30 p.m.

School Officials Presented

Rev. Paul Surbey, pastor of St. John's United Church of Christ, gave the invocation and E. A. Karandjeff, bank president, introduced B. J. Davis, superintendent of schools who, in turn, introduced other school officials and principals.

Dr. Eugene Walton, president of the school board, welcomed the teachers and reviewed changes in the teaching profession during the last 20 years.

"Teachers used to teach the three "R's" and get by, but today new teaching requirements have been adopted that have made the quality of education a great deal better," Dr. Walton said.

H. D. Karandjeff, chairman of the bank board of directors, extended the best wishes of the board and thanked the new teachers for coming to Granite City to teach. He also expressed pride that Granite City has for Rep. Smith, a native Granite Cityan who attended schools here.

Teachers Offer Speakers to Any Groups in Area

A circular given out to the public Tuesday by Local 743 of the Granite City Federation of Teachers read as follows:

"Citizens, 'ask yourself and members of the school board these questions.

1. "Will the school district receive approximately $1,900,000 in new money from state funds for this school year?

2. "Will the educational tax rate be the same if the teachers receive their salary demands?

3. "Will there be approximately $1,000,000 remaining in the teachers' salary account next spring if the teachers accept the board's latest proposal?

4. "Are the teachers asking for the same portion of the educational fund that they have received in previous years?

5. "Would acceptance of the teachers' last salary proposal leave the school district operating in the black at the end of the contract year?

6. "Did the school board place stringent conditions upon the PTA forum held at Frohardt school Friday, Sept. 5, prior to accepting the invitation?

7. "Was one of these imposed conditions there be no direct confrontation with the teacher representatives?

8. "Was another 'no broadcasting' by Wgnu?

9. "Was there still another stipulation that the forum not be open to the general public?

10. "Did the board members present rely mainly on an East St. Louis attorney to present their position instead of speaking as your elected officials?

11. "Is the school board asking the citizens to send children into schools that will not be staffed and thus endangering thousands of children?

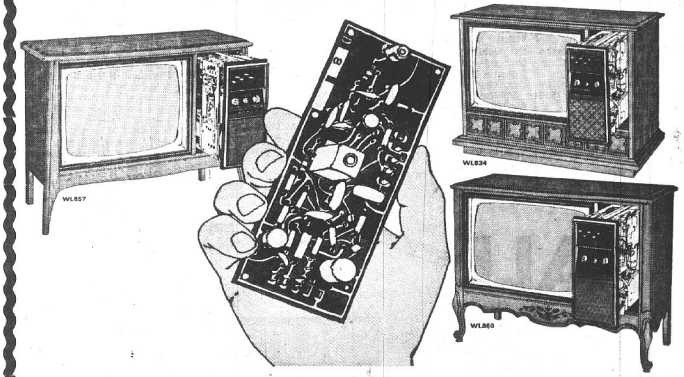

"The teachers believe that all the above questions must be answered 'yes.' We are willing to meet with any and all interested citizens groups to have the whole story told.

"The teachers have nothing to hide. If you are a member of a group who wishes to be more fully informed, please call 877-5537 for a teacher."

if other details could be worked out.

No bargaining talks have been held since Sept. 5. The last board offer was for monthly salaries ranging from $788 to $1455 in the first year and $833 to $1505 plus an amount for cost-of-living increases in the second year.

Local 743 has said the minimum it would accept is $833 to $1500 for two years, with cost of living omitted the first year and to be added the second year.

Filing of the suit did not occur until this week in the hope that negotiations could be successfully completed.

Duty to Educate Cited

A bargaining table settlement now appears more remote, and board members see the court action as their only alternative in carrying out their obligation to provide an education to children.

Local 743, seeking about $400,000 more than various offers which the school district views as competitive in this region, has revised its request several times, boosting some figures in the salary schedule while trimming others.

The union takes the position that there are available funds and that the revenue should be made available to the teachers.

Talks were held regularly four months last spring, with the previous three-year agreement expiring June 30. Bargaining resumed Aug. 22 after several school board attempts to get the talks started earlier in August.

MORE ABOUT

Injunction

Aug. 26 that teachers would not report the next day, the district contends.

On the revised teacher starting date of Sept. 8, about 500 teachers again failed to report, the suit notes; on Sept. 9, the revised starting date for pupils, about 500 instructors again did not report.

It asserts that such acts were done in pursuance of a common plan at the instigation of and under the direction and suggestions of the officers of Local 743.

Unless the suit is favorably acted upon, the actions cited will continue on days when school usually would be conducted, the suit says. The interference with school is called illegal, wrongful and contrary to law, violating the Illinois Constitution and Illinois School Code and impeding the ability of school authorities to meet their duties in requiring children to attend school.

It is said that irreparable harm and damage are being caused to the school system, students, parents, citizens and taxpayers, and that the school system has "no adequate remedy at law." It calls for immediate court action without notice.

Dime Store History Told to Rotarians

The 90-year growth and expansion of the F. W. Woolworth Co. was outlined for Granite City Rotarians Tuesday by Louis LeWright, manager of the local store, and Ray Wooden of St. Louis, merchandising manager for the firm's midwest area.

The speakers were guests of Christ Pashoff, program chairman for the luncheon meeting at the YMCA, attended by 49 members and presided over by Carl Mathias, president. A new member, Rev. Jesse Roberts of Niedringhaus Memorial United Methodist Church, was welcomed.

The Woolworth officials told of the start of the fim as a nickel item store that caught on and went to include 10-cent items, expanding to 20-cent items in 1932, increasing its volume by $20 million by 1934.

In 1950, they said, new lines were added, including appliances, manufactured by the firm's own companies, and the expansion rose to 3500 stores in North America and Mexico and Europe.

Charles Hasse, YMCA youth director, announced a special program by the Mission Singers of St. Louis will be presented at the "Y" on Oct. 18, with the public invited to attend.

Stolen Car Abandoned

A stolen car whose driver was chased by St. Louis police into Madison was abandoned by the thief in the alley behind the 1700 block of Fourth street, about 2:50 p.m. yesterday, Madison police reported. Madison authorities said they received a radio message that the stolen car was headed toward Madison and a few minutes later were informed the car had been abandoned and the driver escaped on foot. The stolen car, a 1968 model, was towed to a garage.

Red Cross Will Man Two Fun Fair Booths

The Tri-City American Red Cross chapter, an agency of the Tri-Cities United Fund, will sponsor two booths in the UF "Fun Fair" event Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 27 and 28 in the Wilson Park ice rink pavilion.

First-aid and water safety programs, along with games and prizes, are to be spotlighted in the fair by the local chapter, Mrs. Ruby Overbeck, executive director, reported to the Red Cross board of directors Tuesday. The monthly meeting, conducted by Melvin T. Gillie, chapter president, was held in the First Granite City National Bank conference room.

Gillie reported the resignation from the board of Rev. Gail Cross of the Nameoki Presbyterian Church, due to moving away.

Jack Absalom, disaster committee chairman, reported results of an emergency preparedness conference held in August at which representatives of industry, labor, civil defense, municipalities and state police participated.

Ditty bags made and filled by volunteers for servicemen in Vietnam will be ready to ship overseas later this month, Mrs. Overbeck said. Board members were reminded of a meeting of all United Fund agencies to take place at 4:30 p.m. Monday at the YMCA.

Reports for July and August, presented by Mrs. Overbeck, showed that financial assistance to armed forces personnel amounted to $1160 in July and $25 in August; 343 services by the chapter were handled in July, with 232 in August.

Included in the July and August activities were: emergency leaves, 20 and 23; leave extensions, nine and four; health-welfare cases, 12 and 15; home conditions report, one and none; counseling, 152 and 145; other reports, 20 and 62; financial assistance, 11 and one; and traveler's aid, none and one.

Cahokia Sewer Breaks Plague Levee District

A proposal to proceed immediately with repair of three major breaks in sanitary sewer lines of the East Side Levee and Sanitary district in the Cahokia-Centreville area of St. Clair county was referred to the engineering committee for further study during a special meeting of the levee board of trustees yesterday afternoon.

The board met to act on a directive by the Illinois State Sanitary Water Board that the sewer breaks be repaired immediately because of the health hazard. The levee district is without funds to do the work and much of yesterday's meeting discussion involved the question of seeking contracts on a fixed price offer or a cost-plus basis.

William "Mike" Ebersoldt of Venice, Madison county member of the board, insisted that financing come from any federal funds received as disaster relief on claims filed as a result of July flooding damages to levee district facilities. Board members made no mention of a bond issue to finance the work, although it is known such a possibility has been under discussion.

Shell Oil Employees Plead Guilty to Theft

Guilty pelas to conspiracy charges were entered by two former Shell Oil Co. refinery employees Tuesday in Madison county circuit court in connection with theft of more than 400,000 gallons of gasoline.

They are Herman D. Wilson, 38, of 2208 Nevada avenue, and James L. Riley, 37, of Wood River. They asked for probation, and a probation hearing was set for Sept. 29 by Associate Circuit Judge Michael Kinney.

Wilson and Riley and three others, two truck drivers and a service station operator, were arrested 14 months ago after refinery security guards discovered the operation. One of the truck drivers has died.

The service station operator, Harry Melow, Wood River, was granted immunity by the prosecution. A truck driver, Cecil Heutch, Belleville, is faced with trial.

Riley and Wilson in statements to the company said they were able to manipulate meters at a gas-loading rack to eliminate detection.

It was estimated that the operation netted more than $100,000 in an 18-month period.

Fall Schedule of Hours Begin for Area Libraries

Granite City public library began its fall schedule this week and is open three evenings, Mrs. Mary Gene Knuflinke, head librarian, said today.

The library hours now are 8:45 a.m. until 5:15 p.m. each Monday, Friday and Saturday, extended until 8:30 p.m. on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

Hours for the children's department have been changed this year. It will be in operation from 10:15 a.m. to 5:15 p.m. each day, and if a child accompanies a parent during the evening, the children's department will be opened for the time the parent is in the building.

Bookmobile regular routes will begin when the local schools open.

Madison, Venice Hours

Mrs. Louise Lewis, Madison librarian, states their hours are from noon to 6 p.m. on Tuesday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday and from noon to 8 p.m. on Monday and Thursday. The children's department closes each day at 6 p.m.

The Venice library will be open from 1 to 6 p.m. daily with the exception of Tuesday and Thursday when closing time is 8 p.m., Mrs. Sybil Robbs, head librarian said today.

Mrs. Robbs announced the third grade students from Blair school with their teacher, Mrs. Betty Williams, will attend a story hour and get-acquainted tour of the library on Friday at 1 p.m.

Collide in Venice

Cars driven by Alex Rachitz jr., 1614 Seventh street, Madison, and Lawrence M. Henderson, East St. Louis, were damaged extensively in a collision at 6:45 a.m. Tuesday at the State street cutoff on Broadway in Venice, police reported. Officers said Rachitz was headed west on Broadway when Henderson's car, headed east, skidded into Rachitz's traffic lane.

KC Barbecue will Aid Handicapped, Shrine Unit

On Sunday Cahokia Council of the Knights of Columbus will hold its annual Charity pork steak and chicken barbecue at the Holy Family school gym near Route three in Cahokia.

The annual affair benefits the Belleville Diocese St. Phillips School for handicapped children and the Shriners Hospital Burns Travel Fund which picks up the tab for getting children to the Shriners Burn Institute in Cincinnati, Ohio.

The latest burn victim, six-year-old Renee McGruder was taken to the Shriners Burn Institute in Cincinnati just two weeks ago. The young Negro girl was badly burned in a fire near her home on May 8 and had been treated at St. John's Mercy Hospital in St. Louis county.

A helicopter was furnished by the Hughes Tool Co. of St. Louis for the flight to the Bi-State Airport in East St. Louis. From there, she was taken by plane to the Institute. The girl is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hoscy McGruder of East St. Louis. The father is employed at the Laclede Steel Co. plant.

Last year, the barbecue divided $1600 between the Burns Travel Fund and Camp Ondesonk in southern Illinois. Jack McDonald is Grand Knight of the Cahokia Council Knights of Columbus and Harry Bise of Collinsville is Potentate of Ainad Temple Nobles of the Mystic Shrine. Leo Lipe of Granite City is the Ainad Temple Hospital Unit Burns co-ordinator, for burn victims of this area.

Fourteen youngsters have been placed in the Burns Center, and the cost for the trip is nearly $250. Their stay is paid for by the Shrine, and the average child care runs more than $17,000.

During the barbecue picnic, the Black Knights Drum and Bugle Corps will give a performance at 2 p.m. and will present the National Trophy to the Cahokia Council Knights of Columbus which the unit won while being sponsored by the group in the April contest. The Ainad Stage Band will perform from 4 to 6 p.m. with dinner music, and the Ainad Clowns as well as the Provost Guard and the Hospital Unit will assist.

Tickets are $1.75 for adults and $1 for children for the family style meal.

Sheriff's Grocery Bill Criticized By Supervisor

Madison county Sheriff George Musso was accused this week of feeding himself and his wife at the expense of county taxpayers.

Roger Elble, Wood River township supervisor, said a member of Musso's family had been seen purchasing food at an Edwardsville supermarket and charge the purchase to the county.

Elble and James Green, assistant supervisor of Wood River township, cast dissenting votes on acceptance of the county jail committee's claims of $17,038 during a board of supervisors meeting Tuesday morning. However, they voiced no reason for their votes during the meeting.

Elble said six purchases at the store during August totaled $92 and was charged to the county account. He added that estimates of the cost of food furnished the sheriff and his family by the county is closer to $150 per month.

Sheriff Musso, who is provided living quarters and utilities at the jail for himself and his wife free of charge by the county, said it always has been the practice for the sheriff to utilize part of the food purchased for the county jail.

His wife, who is matron, makes the purchases, he said, and the bills have always been approved by the county board.

Musso said that Elble has never personally talked to him about the matter. "I guess he doesn't know what's going on, and he has been on the board for some time. If he had any problems, why didn't he speak up?"

In his second term as sheriff, Musso noted that he is on duty 24 hours a day. He added that Elble is wrong on the $150 monthly figures, and "if the board tells me to do differently, I'll go along."

Musso claimed that "Elble just likes to see his name in the paper."

Elble, who claimed that food bought for the sheriff and his wife includes steaks and other items not usually fed to jail inmates, said that former Sheriff Barney Fraundorf purchased his groceries at his own expense.

Fined on Old Charges, Held on Two New Ones

Jake Ford, 17, of 1121 Market street, Venice, arrested Tuesday night on two charges, was taken into magistrate court yesterday in custody of Venice police to appear in four other cases that were filed last August and had been scheduled for hearing.

Police said they arrested Ford Tuesday night on a battery charge after he allegedly struck a 13-year-old girl in the eye during a fight in the 1000 block of Logan street. When booked, Ford was carrying four .22 caliber cartridges, police said, resulting in an additional charge of failure to possess a firearms owners ID card.

Arraigned yesterday on the older charges, Ford was fined $10 and $5 costs on a charge of duty upon striking property, and fined another $10 with $5 costs on a charge of vandalism. A careless driving charge was dismissed and hearing on a charge of driving without a driver's license was postponed for further consideration by the court.

Those charges grew out of an accident Aug. 16 in which Ford's car struck and damaged a fence in Venice, police said. While he was in jail waiting to post bond on the traffic charges, Ford damaged plumbing in a jail cell, resulting in the vandalism charge, police reported. Ford was transferred to the county jail at Edwardsville yesterday.

10% Surcharge Needed With Tax Payment

Individuals paying estimated tax must reflect extension of the 10% surcharge to Dec. 31, 1969, in their installments due on or after Sept. 15, Jay G. Philpott, district director of Internal Revenue for central and southern Illinois, said today.

Prior to the extension, Philpott said, the 10% surcharge was to expire June 30, 1969, which resulted in an annual effective rate of 5% for 1969. Since the extension raises the effective rate to the full 10%, estimated taxes will have to be recomputed, with the additional tax to be divided equally over the remaining installments.

Taxpayers can recompute the installments due on the Amended Computation Schedule they received as part of their estimated tax package last February. For taxpayers filing on a calendar basis the remaining installments are due Sept. 15, 1969, and Jan. 15, 1970. Estimated tax vouchers No. 3 and 4 should be used for the September and January payments respectively.

Philpott stated that taxpayers who previously expected their estimated tax to be less than $40 and therefore did not have to file Declarations of Estimated Tax will now have to do so if the surcharge extension increases their estimated tax to $40 or more. Estimated tax forms are available at IRS offices, he said.

CD Medical Supplies at Bank Opened and Rifled

Civil defense medical kits, stored in the basement air handling room at First Granite City National Bank, have been opened and rifled, Edward Uhercik, bank purchasing officer, reported to police Monday afternoon. He was unable to say when the incident occurred.

Victor H. Koenig, Granite City civil defense director and custodian of CD emergency supplies, said a similar event involving medical supplies happened at Granite City Steel Co. some time ago. The CD official will conduct an inventory of supplies to determine what items are missing.

Accountants Association To Meet on Tuesday

George J. Moll, president-Diversified Metals Corp., St. Louis, will be the guest speaker at the Sept. 16 meeting of the St. Louis Chapter of the National Association of Accountants. His topic will be on "Corporate Growth-Philosophy and Implementation."

The meeting will take place at Stouffer's Riverfront Inn and will be preceded with a 6:30 p.m. dinner.

Sunday at Noon

Holy Trinity Bulgarian Church to Dedicate Fellowship Hall

After two years of planning and work—mostly on a volunteer basis—a special dedication service will take place at noon Sunday for a new church hall and fellowship building, located at 1245 Madison avenue, recently acquired by the Holy Trinity Bulgarian Eastern Orthodox Church.

Rev. Peter Stamboldjeff, who has served the local congregation the past four years, will officiate at the Divine Liturgy service, at the hall.

Dinner will follow the dedication service for parishioners and friends at 1:30 p.m. Entertainment will be provided by the International Folklore Federation of Greater St. Louis, and 15 children of the parish will perform national dances under the direction of Mrs. Sylvia Evangeloff.

100 Families

The church has been in existance at its present location at 13th street and Grand avenue since 1927 and now has a membership of 100 families.

Under the leadership of Vasil Tarpoff, a past president, and Leland Ambuehl, the current president of the church board, the property, formerly known as the Crystal Ballroom, was purchased two years ago and has been undergoing a renovation program. The hall was secured to provide larger quarters for programs, dinners and church activities as well as renting for public gatherings, with the consent of the board. Reservations for the use of the hall can be made by contacting Paul Freeman.

Serving on the building committee and assisting with the work on the hall were Chris Costoff, chairman; Vasil Tarpoff, Paul Freeman, Slav Ettimoff, Nick Todoroff, Constanty Christich, James Dochnal, Boris Elieff, George Popmarkoff, Phillip Tsigolaroff, Tom Georgieff and Leland Ambuehl.

The ballroom has been extensively redecorated and features recessed lighting in the ceiling as well as new dropped chandeliers with four individual lights, glass block was installed in place of the existing windows, newly-painted walls and floors refinished. New plumbing, heating and air-conditioning units have been installed.

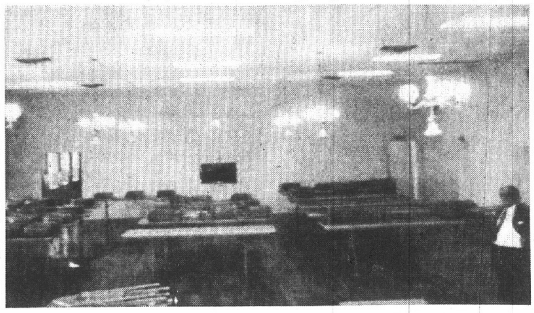

Paneling, Wallpaper

An attractive entry hall has half of the walls with a brilliant red and gold flocked wall paper on the upper half and to complete the decorating the floor is carpeted in co-ordinating color. The women's lounge is also completely redone and features carpeting on the floor.

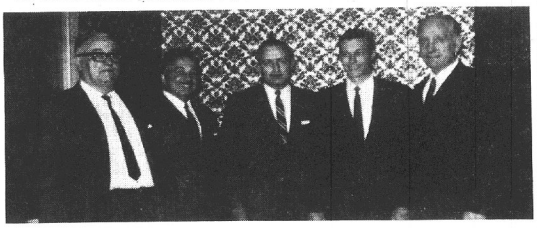

Kitchen facilities are available for anyone who choses to rent the hall, although new and modern appliances will be added from time-to-time.

With the purchase of new tables and chairs the hall has the capacity to seat 350 persons at one time.

The public is invited to attend the dedicatory service.

INTERIOR OF BALLROOM of the church hall of the Holy Trinity Bulgarian Eastern Orthodox Church, which has just recently been redecorated for use by the church and for public gatherings.

Recover $4 Millions Under Wage-Hour Law

The Wage and Hour and Public Contracts Divisions of the U. S. Department of Labor found $4,183,440 due to 15,530 Illinois workers under the Fair Labor Standards Act last year, according to Gerald G. Mitchell, regional director of the divisions.

Mitchell said amounts found due under major provisions of the Act in Illinois during the 12-month period ending last June 30 included $3,431,216 in overtime pay, $685,728 in minimum wages, and $66,496 in equal pay for men and women.

In addition, he said, a total of 254 minors were found employed in violation of the child-labor provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act. The two divisions conducted 1818 investigations in Illinois during the fiscal year.

To assure future compliance with the various provisions of the Act, U. S. Department of Labor attorneys filed 221 legal cases in U. S. District Courts in Illinois, Indiana, Minnesota and Wisconsin.

Civil contempt actions were taken against employers failing to comply with injunctions previously issued by the courts. Also filed were 32 lawsuits to recover minimum and overtime wages for employes and one criminal action.

Information concerning provisions and coverage of the Act, which also is known as the Federal Wage and Hour law, may be obtained by residents of this area from Springfield Area Office, Room 716, 101 South Fifth street, Springfield, Ill., 62701; phone (217) 525-4090.

Bogus $10 Bills Appear in Area

The Associated Retailers and Civic Association advised members this week to watch for counterfeit $10 bills that are being passed in this area.

The bills are of good quality paper, with a poorly reproduced seal. They bear the serial number C937155-54A, Series 1963E, and are drawn on the Federal Reserve Bank of Philadelphia.

Further information may be obtained from the First Granite City National Bank, the association reported.

SCHOOL ADMINISTRATION, BOARD DOING GOOD JOB

To the Editor:

The school administration and the board of education are to be commended and encouraged for the position they are taking in the present teacher disputes.

They are recognizing and enforcing an understanding as to the use of the bond money voted on at the last bond election.

They certainly have offered more than they should have—which, now, is still not enough as far as the teachers are concerned. The teachers' position is very much the same as it has always been.

Get all you possibly can; don't concern yourself with the one who provided the money.

Accuse the administration and board of not handling the accounting properly.

Issue statements contradictory to the facts.

Again, I say our administrators and board members are fair and dedicated people—hats off to them for their courageous stand.

Fundamentals of a good citizen are to live within your income and obey the law. The teachers are insisting these fundamentals be violated.

They have been shown what the district can afford—they are striking, which under present Illinois law is forbidden.

Now who is trying to take the law in their own hands?

ANOTHER SCHOOL STOCKHOLDER

ARBITRATION, AUDIT SUGGESTED IN DISPUTE

To the Editor:

I want to make it clear that I am neither for nor against the school board or the teachers' union but I am for getting my children back in school without any further delay—delay which is being caused by lack of communication and subbornness.

I have talked personally with members of the negotiating teams of both sides in an effort to separate fact from rumor and hearsay.

These conversations prompted the following suggestions: Since all else has failed, why not form an arbitration committee to study the situation with the understanding that the teachers and board alike will abide by their decision? The teachers have expressed a willingness to do this; why does the board hold back?

Another alternative — since there appears to be a discrepancy in the figures on both sides, or at least in the interpretation of the figures, have a qualified auditing firm audit the board's books to see just what money is there, what it's being allocated for, how much is in reserve, etc.

I doubt seriously if the board would consent to this but, fellow taxpayers, we have a right to know all the true facts—not just what they choose to tell us—and perhaps all the story has not been told.

This is a union town and if this were one of the local companies negotiating a contract you can bet everyone would be backing the union 100%.

But since all you die-hard union people are, in this instance, at the management or employer level, your outlook is a little different, isn't it? Their employees are asking for a raise out of their money and they don't like it.

For you unfortunate people who say teachers are nothing but babysitters, ponder this for a minute. The teachers are asking for a starting salary of $7000. Divide this by 180 days (actually 185, I believe) and you come up with $38.88 per day.

Sounds pretty good, but wait; we're doing this on a babysitting basis. Divide this daily figure by a round figure of 30 students in a classroom and this comes to approximately $1.30 per family per child.

If there is a babysitter around with a college degree who will take care of my children six hours a day if we take out about $50 for income tax, another $10 for state tax, and another $50 for retirement (it's going up this year), we have a net pay of $274.92 every two weeks.

Did you know that the average starting salary of all college graduates this past June, teachers and nurses excluded, was around $9000?

And did you also know that in order to make that salary on the school board's 1969-70 salary schedule, a teacher in Granite City would have to have already taught six years, and that on the salary schedule for 1969-70 as proposed by the teachers' Salary and Policy Committee he would still need five years of experience?

When I think of the amount of education and experience needed by a teacher to qualify for these average salaries, I would like to think he is a dedicated person.

But I am very much afraid that if I would ask an honest person to evaluate him as either dedicated or stupid to work for that salary, considering the education required and the cost of the education, that honest person might just choose the latter.

GRANITE CITY TEACHER

WHY CAN'T TEACHERS, SCHOOLS GET TOGETHER?

To the Editor:

I just got back from taking my children to school this morning. I knew when I took them they would be turned away. However, I felt it was my duty to send them, and also a form of protest to all concerned parties that this is where the children of Granite City belong—in school.

It is hard for me to remain neutral in this situation. I don't know whom to blame — the teachers' local 743, the school board, the negotiating committee—who?

I have always maintained the highest regard for the school system of Granite City, and also the highest regard for the teachers.

I have a daughter who has already graduated from Granite City high school, and had graduated with high honors, due a great deal, of course, to her ambitions, but also to the knowledge taught her by the teachers of the Granite City schools.

Now, I am beginning to wonder why in the world school has had to be delayed two weeks. Here we are with adults with master degrees, bachelor degrees, experienced teachers, asking for a designated salary, for a one-year contract, and to take part in naming the curriculum.

Then, on the other side, we have a selected school board, capable men, I'm sure, and also college degrees, I'm sure stating their side.

So why in the world can't educated adults get together and decide on a contract that everyone can accept?

If the school board has the money to pay them what the teachers want, why can't they have it? On the other hand, if the school board says we want a two-year contract, why not accept it?

As for the curriculum, why not keep it in the hands of those who have always handled it—of course, with encouragement from the taxpayers' throat? They are not so dense that they can't check a few figures. The time is long gone of the overworked, underpaid teacher of yesteryear.

If you feel as though you are on the short end of the deal, go back to school, earn a higher degree and then teach at a higher level; earn the kind of money you think your worth.

Don't sit back and smirk with the thought "The school board and district need me." If you were capable (degree wise) of teaching at a higher level, you wouldn't be sitting back waiting for the school board to give in; you'd be out earning what you were worth.

But, as the matter is, let's see who will vote for what and for the sake of the school board, the sake of the people, the sake of the children and for God's sake, I hope something brings you back to earth. I am very optimistic that it won't be at the expense of the school board or the taxpayer.

GOOD EDUCATION WORTH WHAT THE TEACHERS ASK

To the Editor:

In regard to the article Monday about Granite City school district residents not bowing, etc., we would like to know how they know we will not bow to the request for a raise for teachers.

We have not been asked, nor were we asked when medical expenses went up, such as doctor office calls and hospital expenses. But we had to accept these increased demands to provide properly for our children.

There is nothing more important than a good education for our children. All the money we could save and leave them would not compensate for or equal an education.

Why doesn't the school board ask how parents feel?

The board is made up of good, sound businessmen who spend lots of money to win a seat on the board and then work free. I find this conflicting. Why spend money and not receive any reimbursement?

We would like to see an audit and report from an outside party. The money they have—does it draw interest? Where does it go?

We support the teachers in their stand—not in seeing my children out of school but in their trying to obtain a decent salary comparable to others' pay for their work.

We have found the school board office long on waiting, short on action and wishy-washy on talk.

SICK PERSON POISONING DOGS NEAR E. GRANITE

To the Editor:

An article in the Sept. 4 paper was, for me, the "final straw." On page two a very small article told of a three-month-old boxer puppy poisoned in a lady's home.

On Friday, Aug. 8, my father, an elderly man, began his day as he has done for almost 17 years; he let his dog out.

Fifteen minutes later he called her to come in; she was no longer there, and since then has not been found.

This particular dog was old, sick, and so attached to my father that even when called she would not step beyond the yard, except for him. She came to him not by voice, but by a gesture of his hand.

We lost Mother four years ago, and upon the loss of "Lady," Dad's dog and devoted friend, his first words were, "This is the first time I've really been alone since Mom went away."

The tie to my story and the poisoning of the puppy is that this is the seventh person we know of to lose a dog in this area, either by being mysteriously taken, or killed by poisoning at this particular hour of the day.

The people of East Granite would be very wise to take heed to this pitiful situation.

If movement or barking of a dog will upset some one of your neighbors to the extent of killing innocent dogs, what might they do to a noisy neighbor?

You may have a potential killer next to you, or at least a very sick person who needs help desperately. Is it a son or husband?

COLLEGE EDUCATION JUSTIFIES MORE PAY

To the Editor:

A salary of $8307 a year for only nine months of work and a five-hour day. That's $932 a month—the average salary for teachers in Granite City for the school year 1968-69. Wow! Sounds great, doesn't it? But is it really? Let's find out.

First let's see how a teacher can qualify for this salary. He can have a bachelor's degree and be in his ninth year of teaching, a bachelor's degree with a total of 150 credit hours and be in his eighth year of teaching, a bachelor's degree with a total of 175 credit hours and be in his seventh year of teaching, a master's degree and be in his sixth year of teaching, or have a master's degree with a total of 190 credit hours and be in his fifth year of teaching.

Even though he worked only nine months for his salary, debts go on for twelve—house payments or rent, insurance, car payments, food bills, etc.—so he probably chooses to receive his salary over a twelve-month period.

This means that he will receive 26 pay checks of $319.50 before deductions. After deductions of about $40 for income tax and another $30 for retirement, (nine months only), that leaves a net income of $249.50 every two weeks.

"Find a job in the summer to supplement your income," one may say.

"Have you ever tried it?"

"We prefer to give our summer jobs to sons of our employees and to college students. So please don't call us; we will call you.

"And after all, you don't need the job nearly as bad as a college student because you are still being paid during the summer even if you aren't teaching, aren't you?"

Teachers have a five-hour day, I doubt it. Do we not consider getting to school early, staying late, or the many hours spent at home correcting papers and preparing lessons as part of the work day?

I know as well as others that this does not apply to all teachers, but do we make all suffer because of a few?

But the school board offered an average salary of $10,008 per year and that's $384.92 every two weeks. Here we are with adults with master degrees, bachelor degrees, experienced teachers, asking for a designated salary, for a one-year contract, and to take part in naming the curriculum.

Then, on the other side, we have a selected school board, capable men, I'm sure, and also college degrees, I'm sure stating their side.

So why in the world can't educated adults get together and decide on a contract that everyone can accept?

If the school board has the money to pay them what the teachers want, why can't they have it? On the other hand, if the school board says we want a two-year contract, why not accept it?

Granite City School District Seeks To Enjoin Teachers; $1 Million Yearly Saving Possible

Faced with rejection of a 20%-plus wage increase by the teachers' union, the Granite City school board this week, as a last resort in an effort to get the schools back in operation, filed an injunction suit in the circuit court.

Since the school district has individual contracts with its teachers, and only one has submitted a legal individual resignation, the board is confident that the courts, as in a similar case in Benton, Ill., this week, will require the teachers to fulfill their obligation.

An alternative would be for the teachers to subsequently resign individually, those who want to, in which case they would be guilty of breach of contract and subject to punitive as well as other damages. At the same time, this would then free the board from contracts which it regards as binding and allow it to employ a new faculty.

Whatever the outcome of the litigation, the controversy leading up to it has focused attention on school affairs in general. Besides being generously treated financially, compared to most other school districts in this area and elsewhere, the negotiations have also disclosed an inefficiency in operations compared to state and national statistics. This should be corrected.

Granite City school district has an average classroom enrollment of approximately 24. The national average is 32, and the Chicago schools are trying to reduce their average to 34.5 pupils per class.

While fewer pupils per class is desirable, in the face of these averages, plus high local school taxes, sales tax and the new Illinois income tax, it seems only common sense to indulge in a little prudence.

A 20% increase in the average Granite City classroom enrollment, from 24 to 29, would result in a saving to local taxpayers in excess of $1 million dollars anually. The classroom size would still be below the national average—and substantially below the Chicago average—and, at the same time, it would release over 100 teachers to relieve critical faculty shortages elsewhere.

We believe this should be done without delay, not only for the benefit of taxpaying parents but also in anticipation of probable future higher school operating costs in these days of inflation. This would be a much wiser course than that followed in the Collinsville school district, where all funds for higher operating costs were expended this year, leaving no means available to meet next year's demands.

Important That Way Be Found to Fill State Supreme Court Vacancies Before Terms End

If any further evidence was needed to show that present Illinois judicial rules are inadequate, it was provided last week when Justice Byron O. House suffered a cerebral stroke.

The ranks of the Illinois Supreme Court were reduced from seven to five this summer by the resignation of two justices due to alleged conflicts of interest. With Justice House ill, the remaining justices will only be able to make rulings on issues where they are in unanimous agreement.

If anyone else gets sick or quits, or if any of the justices die, there will not even be a legal quorum for meetings.

Thus, when the high court convened this week, it was barely able to function, and in danger of becoming totally ineffective. This is a serious matter because it involves one of the three major branches of government in a state having 11 million residents.

Obviously some mechanism for the replacement of justices during as well as at the end of a term is essential. Steps should be taken to find the quickest and best way to accomplish this.

Closed Nature of Incorporation Campaign Factor in the Latest Rejection by Voters

Once again the establishment of a new municipality has been defeated in the Mitchell area. The proposed village of Chouteau was overwhelmingly beaten in 1968; on Tuesday, formation of a village to be called Chain of Rocks was defeated 122 to 85.

It is not known whether voters would support creation of a city or village called Mitchell and encompassing the entire Mitchell unincorporated area. There is cohesiveness within such an area but many of the people chose to live at Mitchell in the hope of avoiding at least some of the numerous layers of government.

The secretive nature of the latest campaign, spearheaded by a relatively limited group of advocates, aroused public concern due to a lack of information about what the village policies and actions might be. The boundaries chosen also led to the belief that proponents had been included and foes excluded, only to be later encircled and annexed.

At some point it is possible that incorporation again will become an issue, and we hope that in such an instance there will be participation by a full cross-section of citizens and leaders, openly evaluating the advantages and disadvantages and seeking full public discussion and understanding.

Retain Records of Expenses to Be Deducted from Federal Income Tax

(Internal Revenue Service)

Q—I just started working in a beauty shop as a beautician. What tax records should I keep?

A—The W-2 statement you will get from your employer will show your earnings and the amounts withheld for federal income and Social Security taxes. A copy of this form should be attached to your 1040 tax return when you send it in and you should keep a copy.

It's a good practice to keep records of all expenses that are deductible for federal income tax purposes. Put your receipts and cancelled checks for charitable contributions, medical expenses and interest expenses in a special envelope or file folder. This way, you'll have them when you start to prepare your return.

If you have a job where tips are part of your income, record them daily. When they amount to $20 or more a month earned while working for one employer, they should be reported to your employer on or before the 10th of the next month.

This will enable you to receive Social Security credit for your tips as well as enable your employer to adjust your withholding.

For details on reporting tips, send a postcard to your IRS District Office requesting Publication 531, "Reporting Your Tips for Federal Income Purposes."

Q—My divorce came through. Can I still claim my ex-wife's exemption for withholding purposes?

A—No, after your divorce you are no longer entitled to claim her exemption. You should file a new W-4, withholding exemption certificate, with your employer to make the change.

Q—My income is higher than I expected it to be this year. Can I just increase my September estimated tax payment to take care of it?

A—Yes, you can increase your payment due Sept. 15 to adjust for your higher income. Don't forget to make your payment using Voucher 3, which was part of the estimated tax package sent you in February.

To adjust your declaration, increase the income figures used on your estimated tax worksheet and enter the revised amount and payment voucher.

When you have figured out the tax still due (remember, too, that the 10% surcharge has been extended through the end of 1969), pay half of it with your September installment and the other half next Jan. 15.

Q—How can I tell if I will have any tax to pay when I sell some stock I inherited?

A—You use the fair market value at the time of the decedent's death as the basis of the stock in figuring the gain or loss.

Homeowners Need to Know the Law

(Tri-City and Illinois Bar Associations)

If you own your home, or plan to own one some day, how much do you know about the laws affecting homeowners?

Just as automobile drivers must be familiar with traffic laws, property owners should know something about the laws dealing with home purchase agreements, home improvements, joint ownership, the protection of property and other matters that have legal overtones.

The first interest of lawyers is to help people stay out of legal trouble.

Here is a 10-question quiz covering some of the laws of importance to homeowners. Check your answers with the correct ones and you'll know how well you would have fared if you acted on the basis of your present knowledge.

1. A written offer to buy a home becomes a legally binding contract: a) as soon as the buyer signs the offer, b) as soon as it bears the signatures of both buyer and seller, c) only after all other legal papers are signed.

2. When contracting for home improvements, the larger the down payment the better. True or false?

3. A home improvement contractor is out of luck if he can't collect from the owner that ordered the work. True or false?

4. A husband and wife should always own their home as joint tenants with full right of survivorship, so that in the case of the death of one the survivor will automatically be the sole owner. True or false?

5. A fence may be located exactly on the property line. True or false?

6. If a person's home is condemned to make room for a public project, he is entitled to more than the fair market value because of the inconvenience and moving expenses. True or false?

7. Ordinarily the signatures of both husband and wife on the deed are needed to transfer their real estate to another party. True or false?

8. If someone tries to break into your home, the law allows you to: a) shoot to kill, b) do nothing except call police, c) use only the force you reasonably believe is necessary to protect your house and its occupants.

9. A written contract for home improvements: a) should be very general because of the uncertain nature of the work, b) isn't necessarily advisable, c) should specifically describe the work to be done, materials to be used, date of completion and price to be paid.

10. An agreement for the purchase of a house is automatically cancelled if the buyer cannot obtain financing. True or false?

ANSWERS TO BAR ASSOCIATION QUIZ FOR HOMEOWNERS:

1) b.

2) False. The down payment should be only large enough to show good faith and subsequent payments should be made only as the contractor provides lien waivers showing he has paid labor and material costs for work already completed.

3) False. A home improvement specialist may place a lien, or claim, upon property for the amount due him and that lien is valid until his bill is paid.

4) False. Sometimes taxes or other considerations make it inadvisable for a couple to own their home in joint tenancy.

5) True.

6) False.

7) True.

8) c. Force sufficient to kill or to seriously injure may be used only when there is an attack or forcible entry and the person reasonably believes such force is necessary to prevent a serious crime or an assault upon himself or other occupant.

9) c.

10) False. The purchase agreement should have a clause providing that if financing is not found at the rates and terms specified, the agreement can be cancelled without penalty to the buyer.

'Battle of Bands' Sunday Expected to Draw Crowd

A lively crowd of listeners and dancers is expected to jam the Wilson Park ice pavilion Sunday when the second annual "Battle of the Bands" contest will be staged, starting at 1:30 p.m.

The Granite City Jaycees, co-sponsors of the popular teen-age event with Clark's Teaberry Gum, report that discount tickets are available at most local business firms. No purchase is necessary from the participating stores to receive a discount ticket, which is worth 25 cents off the admission price of $1.50.

Local music groups still wishing to compete in the contest may register through tonight at Fornaszewski Music Store, 3009 Nameoki road.

Mayor Donald Partney and Miss Granite City—Dottie DeWitt—are among the 12 judges named today to select the 1969-70 contest winner. Representatives of various areas of the music world also are included on the judging panel.

Certificates, Trophies

John Fornaszewski, Jaycee project chairman, reports that gift certificates and trophies, valued in excess of $200, will be awarded the successful competitors. In addition, a $225 Standel flattop guitar, donated by Fornaszewski Music Store, will be presented a member of the audience.

Winners of the local contest also will receive an all-expense paid trip to the Illinois "Battle of the Bands" contest next spring, where they will compete with other bands from around the state.

Judging will be based on a 100-point system in four major categories, Fornaszewski explained. The areas and percentage points which may be achieved are — musical talent, 40%; showmanship, 30%; appearance, 20%, and audience appeal, 10%.

Those to serve as judges were announced by the Jaycee chairman, as Mayor Partney; Mrs. Lindo (Sabo) Hunter and Miss Leetta Marmion, both former Miss Granite City title-holders; Joe Buerger of St. Louis, an ex-drummer with the Rodney Scott group; Don Longuest, American Federation of Musicians, Local 1717; William Harris, Granite City police department; Walt Schlemer, who has directed his own orchestra in this area the past 25 years; Gordon "Piccalo Pete" Routh of Mitchell, another musician; Mrs. Valerie Evenden, Press-Record reporter; Demos Nicholas, Madison county assistant chief deputy sheriff; Elmer Kirchoff, principal of Grant school, Fairview Heights, and former band director in the Fairview school system; and Miss Dottie DeWitt, the current Miss Granite City, who will serve as foreman of the judges panel.

Gifts, Awards Listed

The winning band will receive a $100 gift certificate at Jack Johnson's Music Store and qualify for competition at the state level.

Second place winners will receive a $50 gift certificate from Glik's Department stores and a third place award of a $25 gift certificate will be presented by Fornaszewski's Music Store.

A large trophy, also donated by Fornaszewski's store, will be awarded the most outstanding individual instrumentalist appearing with a group, the chairman said.

Those attending Sunday's contest may dance to the competing bands, or ample seating will be available for persons wishing to "just listen and view the program," the contest directors noted.

Stanley Noe, Jaycee president, will welcome guests and awards will be presented by Miss Granite City.

Eligibility Rules

To be eligible for competition, youthful members of local music groups must be 13 years of age but no older than 19 years at the time of Sunday's contest. Fornaszewski pointed out that both union groups and amateur bands are eligible to compete.

Several hundred young people danced and listened to ten area bands which took part in the "Battle of the Bands" last fall. The winning band, "Mosburg Shotguns," split its group prior to the state contest in May and the runnerup band, the "Rising Sons," replaced them in the Illinois finals.

Last year, over 30 state winners selected from 20,000 bands competed in the national championships held at the Steel Pier in Atlantic City, N. J.

The winning band was the "Symbol of Tyme" from California.

Thousands of dollars in cash along with recording contracts and tours across the country are among the prizes awarded the winning group.

Proposed Golf Course At SIU 'Tailor Made'

The site selected for a proposed 18-hole golf course at Southern Illinois University-Carbondale campus "looks like it was tailor made for a championship layout," according to SIU golf coach Lynn Holder.

Sloped, tree-lined, and traversed by Pyles Fork creek, the 250-acre site lies southwest of the Carbondale city reservoir on university-owned land. About half of the area is pastureland on the University Farms, and the remainder is heavily wooded.

Following action by the SIU board of trustees earlier this month, the university has stepped up the quest for an architect to design the course. At the suggestion of Trustee Dr. Martin Van Brown, the board directed that the chancellor of the Carbondale campus seek to locate a course architect so that planning could get under way this year. A golf course has been included in the university master plan for more than 18 years.

Students Asked to Aid Victims of Hurricane

A project to aid hurricane victims in Mississippi, Alabama and neighboring Southern states has been undertaken by the Associated Women Students organizations at Illinois State University.

The AWS is issuing an appeal to ISU students who will be returning to the campus next week for the start of the fall semester to bring with them articles of clothing which can be donated to families made homeless by the storm.

Patricia Walters of St. Anne, chairman of the project, said that information she has received indicates that many persons, particularly the very poor, are in great need of clothing and shoes to replace articles ruined or swept away by the hurricane which struck the lower Gulf Coast.

She asked that ISU students bring along clothing they have outgrown or will no longer use. Collection boxes will be located in campus residence halls.

The AWS will work with the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, church organizations and universities in the south to distribute the clothing to needy individuals.

War I Buddies of 327th FA Meet for 50th Reunion

No one turns up in their old doughboy uniform any more. Either they don't fit, or the moths have long since got to them. But turn up they do each September for the annual reunion of the 327th Field Artillery, better known in world war one as the "Lincoln Division."

This year, more than the usual number of world war one veterans arrived at the yearly get-together to celebrate the 50th annual reunion of Battery "A" Association and the same half-century mark of the 327th Artillery Division, according to Otto H. Roman of Granite City, current president of Battery "A" Association.

The association held its 50th anniversary reunion over the weekend at the Heritage House, Springfield, with most members then attending the 327th's reunion this week at the American Legion Home in Taylorville, Ill.

Romann, a widely-known businessman, farmer and civic leader, continues to farm a 640-acre section in the vicinity of Long Lake, where he grows wheat, corn, beans and other crops.

He retired in 1956 from a farm implement dealership which he operated at Mitchell for more than 40 years.

2nd Term as President

The 50th anniversary year is the second time the local resident has served as president of Battery "A" Association, having held the same office during the 1930's. He has continued to attend the annual meetings—more often than not—and obviously enjoys recalling experiences in England and France with his former Army companions.

Otto Romann was in the farm equipment business before his draft number was drawn by lottery in the spring of 1918. He was 26 years old.

He was sent to Camp Taylor at Louisville for training, along with several local men, and assigned to the 327th Field Artillery, designated the Lincoln Division as a majority of its members were Illinoisans.

The 327th, consisting of 208 men, was sent to England the summer of 1918 and almost immediately went across the Channel to LeHarve. Although the artillerymen had been trained in the U. S. on the 4.7 American field piece, they found themselves equipped with French weapons—the 155 cannon and .75 artillery piece.

Horsedrawn Cannon

Practically all artillery was horsedrawn in those days, Romann recalls, adding that his unit became one of the first motorized outfits, with the weaponry pulled by tractor.

He said the huge 155 cannons were stationed behind the seventy-fives and would fire over the heads of soldiers operating the other weapons.

In France, Romann was detailed to special field duty with four other men, which brought him varied assignments. Delivering food to the outpost guards around the artillery emplacements, was among his regular duties.

A total of 160 men embarked at Bordeaux in late 1919 to return to their homes in Illinois.

"We may be getting along in years, but many of us try to make the reunion each year," Romann said last week. He noted that more than 30 members of Battery "A" had returned cards, indicating they would attend the weekend celebration. Orville R. Sweet of Springfield serves as the association's secretary and was responsible for contacting as many men as possible, inviting them to the reunion, he explained.

Dinner and Meeting

A smorgasbord dinner for Battery members and their wives was held at the Heritage House, followed with the annual meeting.

This week, Mr. and Mrs. Romann and their friends took part in the reunion dinner in Taylorville. C. C. Neathery of Hillsboro is president of the 327th Field Artillery Association, with Charles A. Campbell of Taylorville as secretary-treasurer.

About 100 members of the 327th's six batteries and Holding Company regularly attend the division reunion.

Among those making a special trip to the Springfield and Taylorville reunions this year was a Capt. Shaw of A Battery, who also served in world war two with rank of major.

The Captain, as Buck Private Romann continues to call the officer, now resides in Port Charlotte, Fla., where he is in the real estate business. The Romann's have visited his home on several occasions.

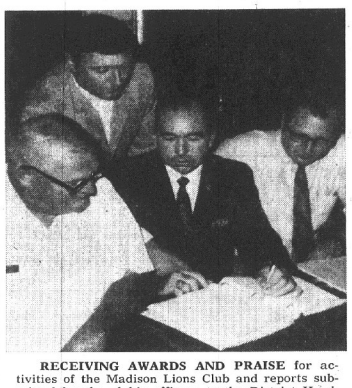

Visits "Top Kick"

For many years, the local veteran has taken the opportunity at reunion time to visit his old top sergeant, Richard "Dick" Rakes, who farms in the Waverly area, but also maintains a winter home in Florida.

"We used to stay at Rick's overnight and years ago would fix a basket dinner to take with us to Taylorville the next day," Romann recalls.

The late William "Bill" Buenger, who was employed at Kahle hardware store for many years, was a member of the 327th with Romann.

Beside his farming operations, Romann remains active in several organizations. He is a life member of the Granite City Optimist Club, a 50-year plus member of Masonic Lodge 835, a member of Ainad Shrine and Knight Templers and a director of the First Granite City National Bank.

Black Widow Spiders Needed at Army Depot

The local Army Depot wants black widow spiders, according to Heinz Jockisch, Industrial Instrument Repair Foreman, Topographic and Electronic Division, Directorate for Maintenance.

Jockisch will accept or pick up the spiders. He may be reached by calling 452-7300 Ext. 709. He also warns anyone against touching the spiders as their bite can produce painful results.

Capturing the insects can be done by touching the spiders with a long stick. The black widow will step onto the stick and may then be placed in a jar with a perforated top to allow entrance of air until such time as delivery can be made.

For those who are not familiar with the markings of a black widow, they have a body that is shiny black and smooth at maturity, almost metallic in appearance. The distinguishing mark is a small red hour-glass that is found on the under side of the insect. The shade of this marking varies with age from a yellow to blood red or scarlet, Jockisch said.

ICBM Test Launching By Airman Meyersick

Airman first-class Karl E. E. Meyersick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Meyersick, Collinsville, has helped launch a U.S. Air Force Minuteman II intercontinental ballistic missile from Vandenberg Air Force Base, Calif. His wife, Donna, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Davisson, 2445 Center street, Granite City.

Airman Meyersick, a missile systems analyst, traveled to Vandenberg from his home station at Francis E. Warren AFB, Wyo., for the mission.

The launch was one in a series of operational testing launches conducted by the Strategic Air Command. The missile, selected at random from those on alert at Warren, was transported— with its maintenance and launch crews — to Vandenberg.

The crews operated from the Vandenberg control center, where they monitored the missile in an alert status. When the launch message was received from SAC headquarters, the crews reacted, launching the missile as they would from their home base in a combat operation.

Park District Certifies New $267,743 Levy

A tax levy of $267,743 for the 1969-70 fiscal year, up $17,346 over last year's figure, has been certified by the Granite City park district to the county clerk's office at Edwardsville for extension of taxes against 1969 property valuations. Taxes extended under the new levy will be payable next summer.

Of the increase, $14,284 is in the levy for the general corporate fund which has been extended for the current fiscal year at $203,892, compared to $189,608 last year.

The tax levy for the park recreational program and facilities is $47,351, up slightly from last year's figure of $45,289. The levy extension for the Illinois Municipal Retirement Fund is unchanged at $11,500 while the levy for liability insurance was increased $1000 to $5000.

Bulk of the levy increase in the corporate fund is for parks operation in which total cost items amount to $168,122, but reduced by estimated receipts of $8543 for a total levy of $162,579. Items of the administrative department of the corporate fund totaled $36,523, reduced by $3533 in anticipated receipts for a total levy of $32,990.

Last year the levy for parks operation amounted to $152,312, compared to the new levy of $162,579, and the levy for the administrative department was $33,225, compared to the new figure of $32,990.

While the budget calls for expenditures of $43,600 for operation of the Wilson Park skating rink, the levy calls for only $8323 of the amount in taxes. The balance is provided from receipts in operation of the rink.

The total levy of $47,351 for the recreational program included: Neighborhood playgrounds—budget of $27,890 less $21,138 in estimated receipts for a tax levy of $6752; Wilson Park playgrounds—budget of $33,383 less estimated receipts of $10,370 for a tax levy of $23,013; Community House—budget of $19,833 less receipts of $2247 for a levy of $17,586.

Last year's levies for these items included $10,850 for Neighborhood playgrounds; $17,139 for Wilson Park playgrounds and $17,300 for the Community House.

Exhibit of Paintings At SIU-SW Scheduled

The paintings of David LeDoux will be on exhibit at the SIU-SW Communications Building from Sept. 12 through Oct. 15.

Professor of art at Middle Tennessee State University at Murfreesboro, Tenn., LeDoux is a native of Louisiana. He received his bachelor and master degrees from Louisiana State University and has had additional training at the University of Chattanooga and Ohio State University.

His paintings have been shown in major exhibitions throughout the country. He is a writer of short stories and poetry as well as a painter, and his recent works have appeared in the Red Clay Reader and the Northwest Review.

LeDoux's paintings are large abstract figurative works, often dealing with landscape and done in subtle tonalities which upon occasion give them a silvery-gray luminosity, according to Don F. Davis, chairman of the SIU-SW and design faculty.

The exhibition will be open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday and from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturday and Sunday.

Dates Set for Goose, Duck Hunting Seasons

The duck and snipe hunting seasons in Illinois will open Nov. 1 and close Nov. 30, with shooting hours from sunrise to sunset.

Tim Solderwell, chairman of the Conservation Advisory Board, reports the selection was based on recommendations from hunters, representatives of sportsmen's clubs and biologists from the Illinois Department of Conservation.

The 30-day period will provide Illinois duck hunters with the best possible season, Solderwell said.

The basic daily bag limit on ducks is four, but must not include in combination more than two mallards, one canvasback or one redhead, or two wood ducks.

The basic possession limit is eight. It is not to include in any combination more than four mallards, one canvasback or one redhead, and four wood ducks.

The daily limit on mergansers is five and ten in possession. Of these, one daily and two in possession may be hooded mergansers.

The daily bag limit on coots is ten and 20 in possession. The limit on snipe is eight daily and 16 in possession.

Extra Allowances

Those who hunt in a portion of Pool 19 (Keokuk pool) of the Mississippi River may take two scaup or bluegills daily in addition to the regular bag of four ducks. They may hunt from the Keokuk dam upstream to the Ft. Madison, Ia., bridge and from the east bank to the navigation channel, but at least 600 feet from the dam. Possession may include an additional four scaup in this area.

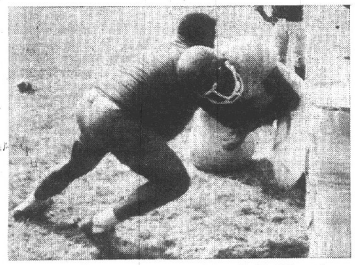

The goose season, except in four counties, will be Oct. 25 to Nov. 30, inclusive, with shooting from sunrise to sunset.

In Alexander, Union, Williamson and Jackson counties, the goose season is divided into two parts—from sunrise, Monday, Nov. 17, to 2 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 21, and from Friday, Jan. 2, to 3 p.m. Sunday, Jan. 11, 1970, unless the state quota has been reached before Dec. 21.

Illinois hunters may take 25,000 Canada geese. If hunters bag this quota before the season is scheduled to end, the season will be closed.

The daily bag limit, five geese, must not include more than two Canada geese or subspecies, or two white-fronted geese, or one Canada and one white front.

The possession limit is five geese but not more than four Canada geese or subspecies, or two white fronts, or two Canadas and two white fronts in the aggregate.

STILL HOPEFUL that there will be a football season for Granite City high school this fall, prospective Warrior gridders are engaging in regular practice sessions. The state superintendent has ruled that no interscholastic games can be played until the school term has started in the district. Coach Wayne Williams has told the squad he hopes to be able to describe it as "a quiet killer," effective against all foes. But the most dangerous foe of all may prove to be the calendar; no victories can be recorded in contests that are not played.

Slow Progress in GC Football Scrimmaging

With its ability to proceed with actual games nullified by the delay in the start of the school term, the Granite City high school football varsity is continuing conditioning and scrimmages in order to be ready for action when a green light is received.

Coach Wayne Williams describes the team's initial development as, "Slow, very slow." The coaching staff is smaller than normal due to the lack of some teachers who handle assistant coaching duties.

On the coming season, Williams comments, "At times they look like they may be a football team and at other times they show why they lost some games last year. Right when we think we've found a ball player, the next day he's not as good.

"I've got to be pessimistic, because it's going so slow. We need more coaching help. It's difficult for so few to coach the sophomores in the afternoon and the varsity twice a day.

"The attitude of the players is good."

"We'll develop hard hitters; that's what the team needs. We're beginning to hit a little better in the last few days."

World Champions to Compete Here Sunday In Eighth Annual River Speedboat Races

Several world and national champion race boat drivers will assemble here this weekend for the eighth annual Kiwanis-Bowline speedboat races, to be staged at 1 p.m. Sunday on the Mississippi River near the Hartford Canal.

Admission to the race site will be $1 per vehicle, regardless of the number of passengers.

Tickets may be obtained in advance from the Granite City Boat & Motor Co., 2402 Madison avenue, or from members of the Granite City Kiwanis and Bowline Boat clubs. The admission fee also may be paid upon entering the racing area Sunday.

Among the "name" racers competing in the annual benefit meet will be Billy Seebold, formerly of Granite City, whose father, Bill Seebold, is heading the race committee for the local Kiwanians. Bill Seebold's counterpart from the Bowline Boat Club is Sidney Daugherty.

Billy Seebold, an audacious boat driver, has captured several world and national championships. He won the "Governor's Cup" two weeks ago at Lexington, Ky., adding the victory to a long list of racing laurels.

Latest Victory

His latest win came when he took 10 first-place trophies and two second-place prizes in a 12-event meet sponsored by Lexington Jaycees.

A crowd of 15,000-plus spectators jammed the lakefront area to view the meet and a variety show presented by Johnny Cash, popular televsion and recording star. Proceeds from the two events were for a boy's orphanage.

During the Lexington Cup Races, Seebold piloted a boat owned by Marshall Grant, bass guitarist with the Tennessee Three music group which appears with Cash on his weekly TV show.

Also in August, the locally raised race driver successfully defended his national championship honors in the "D" runabout class at DePue, Ill., taking four first-place wins.

Other outstanding professional drivers expected to perform here Sunday include Jim Schock of Quincy, who held three world championships over a period of several years, and national champions—Johnny Woods and John Dortch of St. Louis.

Missing from the fast-paced action this year will be Kenny Nicholas of St. Louis, who captured first-place awaards in events here the past two seasons.

Nicholas suffered a severe arm fracture and other injuries recently when he was thrown from his boat and struck by another craft while racing in Alabama.

Between 80 and 100 entries are anticipated in the 12-event contest. Many drivers will enter more than one event.

The late summer classic, postponed from last month due to river conditions, is conducted under the auspices of the National Outboard Driver's Association.

An unobstructed view of the one-mile oblong course will be afforded spectators, who also are guaranteed ample parking facilities, meet officials said.

Quad-Cityans may get to the race site by taking Highway Three to the Hartford Canal bridges and turning toward the river along the north road bordering the canal.

Refreshment booths will be provided by the two clubs for the convenience of race patrons. More than 2000 area boat racing enthusiasts have lined the riverbank to witness the meet in previous years.

4-Foot Gourd Raised At Pontoon Beach

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Miles of 4265 East Lake drive, have produced an unusually large gourd, 48 inches in length and a 10-foot tall castor bean, with leaves measuring 36 inches, now growing in their duck pen. The family planted the gourds for ornamental purposes and have a variety of sizes and shapes. The castorbean, they said, is to discourage moles.

Gourds do not normally grow to the Miles' size. They require the same care as cucumbers, as both plants are afflicted by the same pests and diseases. A great variety of gourds, including white pear, bicolor pear, goose egg, ringed pear, spoon, miniatures, ladle, warty hardhead and snake, are used for winter decorations after curing.

Castorbeans are known to grow as tall as a house—15 to 20 feet—but usually thrive better in the south where commercial crops are produced. Contrary to popular beliefs, the castorbean plants have very little control on the mole population, according to garden authorities.

For anyone interested in growing the beans, authorities advise the seeds contain a poison called ricin. The plants should be located where children cannot get the beans. Fatalities have been reported from eating as few as three seeds.

Lyceum Series Planned at Church

A preview of fall season events at Niedringhaus United Methodist Church has been announced by the pastor, Rev. Jesse H. Roberts, who said a variety of leaders and programs is being planned.

Included will be special lyceum or Chautauqua series to show the thrust of the church in various areas of human living.

All members are asked to participate and plan to bring neighbors and friends. The time will usually be 7:30, but occasionally, when the young people participate, there will be family dinners.

During September, Robert Spencer, program associate for the Inter-Religious Center for Urban Affairs, is making a study for Niedringhaus Church as it attempts to answer the question: What Would be an Appropriate Form of ministry for the church in the near and long range future given the present time and place?

Spencer received his education at Trinity College in Hartford, Conn., and a Bachelor of Divinity degree from Union Theological Seminary in New York. He is an ordained Presbyterian minister.

Canal Freight Still Down From Last Year

Freight tonnage shipped through the Chain of Rocks locks and canal passed the 4-million-ton mark for the first time this year during July, but total shipments for the first seven months of the year still are running behind those of the same period a year ago, according to a report by the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers which operates the locks.

July freight movements totaled 4,063,617 tons, an increase of 79,937 tons over the 3,983,980 tons shipped through the locks during June and only 638 tons less than the July 1968 tonnage of 4,064,555.

The tonnage report showed July freight movements included 2,068,407 tons shipped up river and 1,995,510 tons shipped down river. Shipments included:

Petroleum products, 582,637 tons up river and 185,050 tons down river; grain, 26,550 tons up and 1,603,900 tons down; coal, 590,900 up, 1400 down; cement, sand and gravel, 18,700 up and 21,800 down; sulphur, 7500 up, none down; miscellaneous commodities, 486,320 up, 33,300 down; iron and steel products, 23,050 up, 113,960 down, and chemicals, 328,750 up, 36,100 down.

Report Craft Movements

A total of 5456 vessels passed through the canal during the July month, including 4303 commercial barges and 891 commercial towboats; 216 private recreation boats, 22 government towboats, 14 government barges and eight patrol boats. A total of 996 lockages was made.

The July shipments increased to 23,968,995 tons the total freight tonnage moving through the locks during the seven months of this year, a decline of 691,294 tons below the 24,660,289 tons moved through the locks during the same period of 1968.

Craft movements during July brought to 32,607 the total number of vessels using the locks during the seven-month period this year, compared to 33,575 vessels moving up or down river through the canal during the same period of 1968. The number of lockages during the seven months of this year totaled 5938, the report said, compared to 6304 for the same period of 1968.

Varied Ship Movements

During the seven-month period this year 2622 towboats and 25,828 barges have been locked through the canal. Other craft passages through the canal included 35 passenger boats, 693 private recreation boats, 64 government tow boats, 275 government barges, one government construction boat and 89 patrol boats.

From the time the locks were put into use in 1954, freight shipments increased annually in substantial volume and without interruption through 1967, increasing steadily from an annual volume of 22,124,460 tons in 1959 to 43,243,645 tons in 1967.

The first decline was reported in 1968 when freight movements for the year amounted to 43,072,743 tons, or 170,902 tons less than passed through the canal in 1967.

Medical Group Commends Former TB Trustees

The Madison County Medical Society, at its September meeting, commended three former members of the Madison County Tuberculosis Sanitorium board of trustees for long periods of dedicated service.

They are George Schneider, 31 years of service; Louis Gleiber, 16 years; and Dr. Eugene Moore, 16 years. The society also deplored their recent discharge and supported them in demurring an expenditure of $350,000 which is to be used to convert the sanitorium into a nursing home.

October Draft Call Shows Slight Drop

State Selective Service headquarters at Springfield is announcing that the Illinois draft call for October is to be 1726 men. The new figure is slightly lower than the September draft call of 1746 and the August quota of 2069.

Madison County's draft quota for this month is 67 men, a decrease from the 88 men called during August. Of the county total, 15 men are to be inducted on Sept. 26 from the Quad-Cities area.

Taking pre-draft examinations this month will be 42 men from here.

On the national level, the Pentagon has ordered the induction of 29,000 in both September and October. The announcement said 27,600 of the draftees will be assigned to the Army and 1400 to the Marines.

The draft quotas for September and October are about 5000 fewer than the year's highest of 33,700 last February. Lowest monthly draft call was in July for 22,300 men.

The October call "supports currently approved force levels and will assure a timely flow of replacements for men completing their terms of service," according to a statement from the Pentagon.

Venice Certifies New 1969-70 Tax Levy of $476,301

A new 1969-70 tax levy of $476,301, increased $38,812 over last year's figure, was certified to the office of County Clerk Eulalia Hotz by the city of Venice early this week for extension of taxes collectable in 1970.

The new levy contains minor increases in extensions for the garbage fund, library fund, fire protection fund and street lighting fund, all separate tax accounts.

The general revenue fund also is increased, but only by $728. One special account—for police pensions—shows a $714 decrease.

General revenue items total $143,000 for tax purposes. The levy ordinances shows tax extensions for general fund items totaling $207,202, but $64,202 in cash balances and revenue from other sources is credited against this, leaving the $143,000 to be raised by direct taxation.

Credit Lower Last Year

The 1968-69 levy last year was for $142,272, after cash balance and other revenue of $46,500 was applied.

Major tax extensions of the general fund account in the new levy include $34,039 for the street department, compared to $23,478 last year; $70,940 for the police department, compared to $53,480 last year; $43,905 for fees and salaries of city officers, compared to $40,780 last year.

New levies for the city's special tax accounts include $32,300 for garbage collection, up from last year's $43,115. The new levy for library purposes is $32,850, up from $18,900, while the levy for fire protection amounts to $61,870, compared to $48,707 last year. The extension for street lighting amounts to $11,500, up from $9000.

Other levies for special accounts include the street department, $43,000; municipal retirement fund, $16,000; working cash fund, $15,000, and the police department, $64,600. All of these levies are the same as those extended last year.

Budget is $533,004

The levy figures are based on a 1969-70 budget of $533,004 adopted by the Venice city council last June.

Funding Delays Opening Of Suicide Aid Service

The board of directors of the Madison-St. Clair Counties Suicide Prevention Service, Inc., is hopeful that community mental health boards in the two counties will fund the proposed service during 1970, according to Rev. Fred M. Cornell, board president.

Initial plans called for the Crises Intervention Program to start early this month, but lack of funding support has delayed opening of the service until a later date. Rev. Cornell said that staff and volunteers for the program are being interviewed and directors of the suicide prevention service are calling upon agencies and organizations in the bi-county area to acquaint them with the program plans.

An attempt to secure private funds for the remaining months of 1969, with community mental health boards funding the service next year with tax monies, is the current goal of the group, the board president said.

"We hope that this delay will not be too lengthy and that service to the residents of this area will be available before the end of this year," Rev. Cornell stated.

Whatever the present condition of your lawn don't let this month's GOLDEN OPPORTUNITY
get away from you!

Now that summer is over there is a temptation to say—"The lawn needs improving. Next year I must do something about it."

Make no such mistake. The ideal time to do something is late summer and early fall. The soil is warm but nights are cooler. The natural tendency of grass to tiller (grow additional blades) can be encouraged by fertilizing. Seed germinates more readily. Nature herself is on your side and you have everything going for you.

If your lawn looks thin and dried up . . .
It is remarkable how quickly it will respond to watering and proper feeding. And not only will Turf Builder restore color; it will encourage new sturdier growth. If you would like to introduce some vigorous new grass plants now is a good time to seed-in Windsor.

If you've got a weedy looking lawn . . .
Since many weeds will persist through winter to plague you next year, it's best to clear them out right now with Turf Builder Plus 2. This is a combination weed-and-feed that costs little more than straight Turf Builder. In two sizes $7.95 and $14.95.
Important: Plus-2 and new seed don't go together. If seeding now, use straight Turf Builder and postpone weed control until spring.

If you're going to make a new lawn . . .
You may wish to take this timely opportunity to use Windsor, the improved variety of Kentucky bluegrass. But whichever kind of Scotts seed you choose, your investment is unreservedly guaranteed.

If your lawn is pretty nice as it is . . .
Remember that there is no more important feeding than the one your lawn gets in the fall.
If you use Turf Builder you can put it on any time. And because of the unique way it is made, its nutrients can't be wasted, can't be leached away. Your lawn will be control-fed.

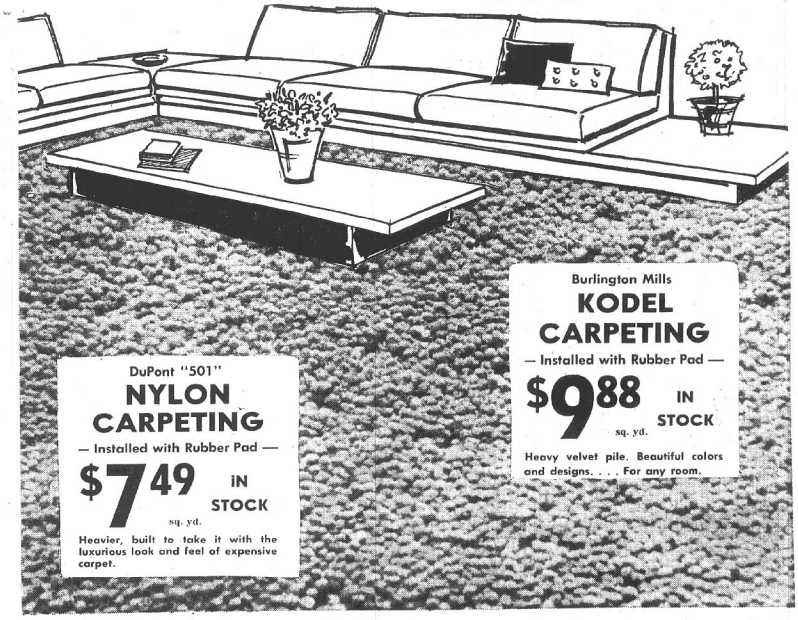

Scotts Feed/Seed Fall Special
Save $1 when you buy a bag of Turf Builder and a 2,500 sq ft box of Windsor or Blend Seventy at the same time.

Vandals Hit Windows In Shooting Spree

Shots fired at homes and a vehicle occurred between 8:30 and 10:30 p.m. Monday at three separate locations in Granite City, police reported. No injuries resulted from the shootings and the amount of damage to property was not listed.

Lee Lyons, 3283 Westchester drive, reported that vandals shot a hole in the front window of his home at 8:30 p.m. Monday. A few minutes later, Shirley Parks, 1401 Kirkpatrick Homes, said two shots were fired into her apartment front window, facing Nameoki road. The shots which broke the glass did not penetrate a lowered window shade, indicating they were fired from a low caliber weapon, police said.

William R. Laycock, 2442 Center street, said vandals shot about 12 holes in the windshield of a pickup truck parked at his home. He said the shooting occurred while he was absent from the house between 9:30 and 10:40 p.m. Monday.

Ditty Bags for Vietnam Troops Still Needed

Local organizations and individuals preparing "Ditty Bags" for delivery to servicemen in Vietnam this Christmas are reminded by the Tri-City Red Cross office that a Sept. 26 deadline has been set for returning the small gift bags to the local chapter.

Mrs. Ruby Overbeck, Red Cross executive, said today, "We would appreciate anyone bringing the ditty bags in as early as possible, in order to pack and get them ready for shipping to Vietnam."

Persons and groups assisting in the annual Christmas gift project who have not obtained a label to be sewn inside the little canvas bags are asked to contact the Red Cross office at 1411 Twenty-first street. The label, stating "Red Cross—Not to be Sold," Mrs. Overbeck explained, is sewn into each bag prohibiting their sale to the men overseas.

Each organization may enclose its own Christmas greeting card as a personal touch, the executive pointed out, adding that many local residents heard from servicemen who received the gift bags last year.

Several local people carried on correspondence with soldiers overseas for quite some time, Mrs. Overbeck said, recalling that a letter from one serviceman stated he was very lonely and that the ditty bag was the only Christmas present he received.

It is still not too late to participate in the program, she said. Instructions on how to make the bags and suggested items for filling them are available at the local ARC office, or by calling, 452-7184.

Persons unable to participate in the program directly, are invited to send contributions which will be used toward shipping the bags. "The shipping costs run into a considerable sum each year," Mrs. Overbeck noted.

15th-State Collision

An auto operated by Eric Wilson of Glen Crossing, Ill., pulling away from a stop sign at 15th and State streets at 6:45 a.m. Tuesday, struck the right side of a vehicle driven by Lee Hodges of East St. Louis, police reported.

Vandals Damage Cans

Vandals damaged two new garbage cans in an alley behind the home of Mrs. Hester White, 2806 Denver street, the owner reported to police Monday evening.

Driver Leaves Scene

The driver of a green auto which struck and damaged the left rear of a parked vehicle at 18th street and Delmar avenue at 12:05 a.m. Tuesday, fled the scene, Leo E. King, 1722 Grand avenue, owner of the parked car told police.

An army of teenage volunteers will march in the metropolitan area the weekend of Oct. 3, 4 and 5 in the annual ALSAC drive to raise funds for research directed toward eliminating childood diseases.

GRANITE CITY BOARD OF REALTORS

ONLY MEMBERS OF THE G.C. BOARD OF REALTORS ARE LISTED ON THIS PAGE

An Open Letter To the General Public

(Warning)

"YOU MAY BE BREAKING THE LAW"

Persistent reports have been reaching us that a number of innocent people are literally being "used" by the "FAST BUCK" boys and other unscrupulous real estate operators, to help them "BREAK THE LAW" of the State of Illinois. Laws governing the "PRACTICE OF REAL ESTATE."

These good people are being asked, or bribed to act, as agents for the solicitation of the Real Estate Business from other members of the general public. They are promised big rewards such as Cash, Gifts, Prizes and in one case a "FREE TRIP to FLORIDA." These unlawful, unlicensed agents are called (as one report states), Spotters, Bird Dogs, Tipsters and just plain "SUCKERS."

("WARNING, don't be a "SUCKER.) Any unlicensed member of the general public, who accepts any form of remuneration from a licensed real estate operator (for the sale or trade of real estate), is aiding and abetting said operator to be in strict violation of the Real Estate License Laws. Such agents may be subpeonaed as a witness before a Court of Inquiry or Special Agents Investigation, Department of Registration & Education, Springfield, Illinois. Final result — humiliation, embarrassment for the unlicensed agent, possible Revocation of the Real Estate License (and out of business for the real estate operator).

As in any profession there are those who labor long and hard to keep their business clean and honest, and there are those who will stoop to any level to make a "FAST DOLLAR" at the expense of the public.

There is no question that doing business with a "REALTOR" is always the safest policy. A trusted name for more than 50 years.

Are you willing to go as low as $1939 for a new VW?

We don't sell status.
Just a car. One that gets up to 27 mpg, hardly uses oil between changes, and goes a long way on a set of tires.
Of course, the fact that it's practical is no secret.
And everybody is going to know that you're saving money. But that's the price you pay for a Volkswagen.

Census Bureau Seeks Immunization Data

A survey of the extent to which children and adults are immunized against various communicable diseases will be made by interviewers of the Bureau of the Census in this area during the week of Sept. 14, according to Theodore F. Olson, director of the bureau's regional office in Chicago.

Local interviewing will be part of a nationwide survey conducted annually for the U. S. Public Health Service. The questions will cover immunization against influenza, polio, measles, diphtheria and other diseases.

The immunization survey will supplement the Bureau's monthly national survey of employment and unemployment for the Bureau of Labor Statistics of the U. S. Department of Labor which furnishes a basic measure of the Nation's economic health.

Information collected in Bureau surveys can be used only to determine statistical totals, and facts about each person and family are kept completely confidential by law.

Kiwanis Club Ready For Sunday's Races

The national boat races co-sponsored by the Granite City Kiwanis Club and the Bow-Line Boat Club, was the major topic of discussion at the Kiwanis club meeting Monday evening at the Rose Bowl.

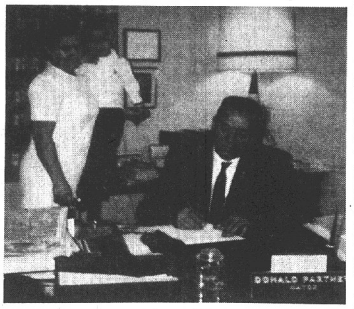

Ed Moore, president, conducted the business meeting with 30 members attending. He announced the club would purchase a 19-inch television, to be used for a special prize at the boat races, from Feder-Huber Furniture store. The annual races project of the club will be held at 1:30 p.m. Sunday near the Hartford canal.

Also discussed was the forthcoming Kiwanis family picnic which will take place on Sunday, Sept. 21 at Ed Moore's clubhouse on the Illinois river. Those named to complete the plans were, George Grove, chairman, Peter Jellen, Herbert Schannot and Mike Toundas.

The members also agreed to man a booth at the United Fun Fair set for Sept. 27-28 at the recreation-rink center of Wilson Park. Norman Hall was appointed to serve as chairman for this project.
